The Open University of Israel is the largest university in Israel, educating over 49,000 students at its state-of-the-art online higher education learning platform and its 70 physical campuses spread across Israel. During Covid-19, following a smooth transfer to 100% accessible online/distance learning, the 2020-21 academic year has begun with a 32% increase in new students. Among Israel’s most vital institutions, the Open University’s core values are based on academic excellence, an open admissions policy, social justice and the inclusion of all citizens of Israel. Since its inception (1976), the Open University has graduated tens of thousands of students, nearly one third of whom were scholarship recipients. Today, a large percentage of Open University alumni are productive contributing members of Israeli society. The tremendous positive impact of the Open University on Israeli society is immeasurable. Indeed, the Open University waves not only the largest academic justice and social justice flags in Israel but also the flag of the path to excellence.

American Friends of the Open University of Israel is a registered 501c3 organization that provides critical support to the Open University of Israel. For more information, visit our website, www.afoui.org or contact us at info@afoui.org.
