UPCOMING BUSINESS WORKSHOPS FOR ARTISTS

AWoL BUSINESS WORKSHOPS WILL BE TAKING A HIATUS IN AUGUST
TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9TH - 5pm-7pm

IS THE DATE OF THE NEXT BUSINESS WORKSHOP, AND WILL ADDRESS
CROWD SOURCE FUNDING, LED BY HOLLY UNRUH

Learn how Crowd Source Funding works. They are all different, take a different percentage as a service fee and have different rules of the game. Holly will be joined by a few other artists that have experience using crowd source funding.
Holly Unruh is the Associate Director of the University of California Institute for Research in the Arts and the former Associate Director of the UC Santa Barbara Interdisciplinary Humanities Center. In her positions she has worked to develop new interdisciplinary arts courses, coordinated cross-disciplinary residency programs through the IHC’s Visiting Artist Program, and built partnerships with numerous off-campus organizations. She has spoken on fundraising for the arts and humanities at local and national conferences. Holly is also a member and past chair of the Santa Barbara County Arts Commission, serves as co-chair of the Westside Association and sits on the board of the Santa Barbara Cultural Development Foundation.

NEW AWoL MENTORSHIPS
EMERGING ARTIST ALLY BORTOLAZZO

Ally Bortolazzo

is being mentored this summer by Macduff Everton. Emerging artist Ally and Macduff both have multi-faceted interests and talents. Ally's artistic range spans photojournalism, water color, installation art and playing the cello. She recently graduated from UC Santa Cruz. In return for being mentored, Ally is assisting Macduff with a landscaping project.

EMERGING ARTIST NATALIE MILLAN

Natalie Millan's

art reflects an unexpected fusion of... realism and fantasy. Other-worldly creatures and characters are often her focus. Currently an art student at SBCC, Natalie is interested in children’s book illustration, painting, concept art, visual development and character design. She is at home in a variety of mediums.

Emerging artist, Natalie Millan embodies the dedication and commitment to refining her craft that Art Without Limits requires in order to enter into a year long mentorship with an established artist. We are currently looking for the perfect mentor to guide Natalie on her artistic path. If you are that artist, or if you know who is, please contact us.

EMERGING ARTIST DEANNE CALIFORNIA

Deanne California is an accomplished photographer and graphic designer. She earned a BA in art and architecture from UC
Deanne California

Sanctuary, and is currently in a Berklee School Music Extension Certificate Program for modern music. Deanne is a Zumba dance teacher. Art Without Limits is in the process of pairing Deanne with a mentor in songwriting, music composition and singing.

CHELSEA WARD, TRAVELING ARTIST

Chelsea Ward
is currently in Lucca, Italy, working on another one of her travel books, and other commissions. She is also a bookbinder, children's book writer and illustrator. When she is not abroad, Santa Ynez Valley is home. Illustrator and former Disney Imagineer, Laura-Susan Thomas, is currently mentoring Chelsea.
PARTICIPATE IN THE MAGIC OF MENTORSHIP!

Are you interested in fostering the creative and professional development of artists by being a mentor? Would you like to be mentored to build a sustainable and fulfilling career in the arts? The Art Without Limits Mentorship Program pairs emerging artists, one-on-one, with established artists for up to 100 hours of guidance. If you would like to be involved in the AWoL Mentorship Program, but have time constraints that keep you from making the commitment, let us know anyway. We can always reach out to you in the future. Sign up to let us know you support our future artists. It feels good to have your support! Email us [here](mailto: contacted@artwithoutlimits.org).
