Landfill gas is a renewable energy source that can be collected and used in a number of ways, including:

- Kilns/Thermal Applications
- Natural Gas
- Vehicle Fuel
- Electricity
- Boilers

Your community is the big winner gaining cleaner air, improved safety, more jobs, and a local source of renewable energy. Together, LMOP and its partners are saving the earth one landfill at a time.