Humility Homes and Services, Inc. (HHSI) - Davenport, IA is seeking a qualified individual to join the team as a full-time Service Coordinator for one of our housing programs.

The Service Coordinator is responsible for providing support and case management to participants in HHSI’s program. Their primary focus is assisting people to obtain and remain in permanent housing by connecting them to eligible mainstream resources and other supports.

Education: Associate’s Degree, or Bachelor’s Degree, with preferred major in social services, or related fields, and minimum of 2 years of experience in social services

Or

High School diploma or GED and minimum of 4 years of experience in social services

Individual must possess demonstrated experience with crisis intervention, Trauma-Informed Care, and social work practice with chronically homeless individuals and/or individuals with disabilities (mental illness, substance abuse/addiction, physical disability, developmental disability, chronic health problems, etc.) Individual must also be capable of preserving the confidentiality of employee and participant records.

Humility Homes and Services, Inc. offers competitive benefits and is looking for a candidate who will adhere to the agency values of: Integrity, Quality, Accountability, Community, and Housing is a Human Right.

HHSI is an EOE.

If you’re interested in applying, send your resume and cover letter to HHSI Assistant Director Christie Adamson at c.adamson@humilityhomes.org

Job Type: Full-time

Salary: $12.25 to $17.00 /hour