The Transgender Day of Remembrance serves several purposes. It raises public awareness of hate crimes against transgender people; it publicly mourns and honors the lives of our siblings, brothers, and sisters who might otherwise be forgotten, and it provides a time to grieve and support one another as a community. Through the vigil, we express love and respect for our people in the face of national indifference and hatred. Day of Remembrance reminds non-transgender people that we are their sons, daughters, parents, friends and lovers and it gives our allies a chance to step forward with us and stand in vigil, memorializing those of us who have died, particularly by anti-transgender violence.

We gather. We remember. We honor. We promise.

We are resistant. We are resilient. We are beautiful. We are loved.

We are.
