UT-San Antonio and Baylor become the latest Texas universities to achieve Carnegie Tier One research status

Kate McCreight

The University of Texas at San Antonio, University of Texas at Dallas and the University of Texas at El Paso have become the second public universities in Texas to achieve the highest Carnegie Tier One classification. The most prestigious research classification in the United States, this designation allows institutions to participate in the National Science Foundation’s Research Experiences for Undergraduates Program.

The Carnegie Tier One classification recognizes universities that...
