Arts, Culture and Creativity Month, April 2020

This (proclamation, resolution) would designate the month of April 2020, and every April thereafter, as Arts, Culture & Creativity Month.

WHEREAS, Arts are not only an impressive and important agent for economic development, but also impact societal issues that include health, corrections, housing, immigration, veterans, transportation and education; and

WHEREAS, It is imperative for all children and youth in California to have access to arts education in their schools; and

WHEREAS, California employs the highest number of people in creative industries – architecture, entertainment, fashion, media, and publishing – than any other state in the nation, according to the “2018 Otis Report on the Creative Economy of California.”; and

WHEREAS, California is the 5th largest economy in the world with a creative economy totaling $504.9 billion in 2018; and

WHEREAS, Efforts must continue to increase funding for the arts, arts education, and cultural bearers; and

WHEREAS, In a state as diverse as California, the arts serve to give voice to our many communities, spark individual creativity, foster empathy and understanding, spur civic engagement and serve as a continual source of personal enrichment, inspiration and growth; now, therefore, be it.
