

Eduek Brooks

Engineer, Financial Educator, Speaker and Trauma of Money Certified Coach

Eduek Brooks' Biography

Eduek is a Financial Educator, Engineer, and Speaker. She is the founder of Two Sides of a Dime, a financial literacy platform that empowers women with educational tools to master their money and retire comfortably. Her mission is to help 100,000 women create a $100,000 investment portfolio in the next decade.

Eduek's inspiring success story of paying off $47,000 in debt and achieving financial freedom has motivated numerous women to prioritize their financial well-being. With her coaching and education services, she has helped hundreds of women become debt-free, effectively manage their daily expenses, and build their retirement savings.

As a certified Trauma of Money Coach, she helps women overcome their fears and limiting beliefs about money and find a balance between achieving financial security without sacrificing the things they enjoy.

Eduek is a sought-after speaker and thought leader in financial literacy. Her insights have been featured in several media outlets, including the Toronto Star, Global News, Corus Radio and Canadian Press. She was even invited to sit in on the reading of the Budget 2023 in the House of Commons.

During her speaking engagements, Eduek provides inspiration, practical tips, and actionable steps to help women take the first step toward financial freedom. She believes that every woman deserves financial autonomy and is dedicated to helping them achieve this goal.

Signature Topics

1. MASTER YOUR M.O.N.E.Y - Live Intentionally, Retire Comfortably

In this signature presentation, participants will learn the five steps to take control of their finances and retire comfortably. Attendees will walk away with actionable steps on how to improve their relationship with money, create a realistic spending plan, pay off debt, build an emergency fund and retire comfortably.

2. S.T.A.C.K MY DIME - Build a F.I.R.M™ investment Portfolio That Weathers Market Fluctuations

In this signature presentation, participants will learn the five steps on how to build a profitable investment portfolio. Attendees will walk away with actionable steps on how to make their first investment with confidence.