Levine Museum of the New South
Educational Programming 2019-2020

Objectives: These exhibits and programs present an integrated social studies curriculum that addresses the NC Essential standards covering history, civics and governance, geography, culture and use of informational texts.

Elementary Grades:
Understanding individual, political, economic and social influences on regions, analyzing chronology of key historical events, using historical thinking skills and understanding location and impact of diverse cultures in North Carolina and the U.S.

Fourth grade: 4.G1.; 4.E.1, 4.C.1
Fifth grade: 5.C&G.2

Middle Grades:
Understanding individual, political economic and social influences on regions, using historical thinking skills and understanding location and impact of diverse cultures as well as how conflict and compromise affected North Carolina and the U.S.

Sixth Grade: 6.H.1; 6.H.2;
Seventh Grade: 7.H.1; 7.C.1;

High School
Using historical comprehension and historical research (primary and secondary sources), analyzing conflict and compromise as well as the impact of war and how democracy depends upon active citizen participation.

American History I: AH1.H.1.2; AH1.H.1.4; AH1.H.4; AH1.H.5; AH1.H.7;
Civics and Economics: CE.C&G.4