Designed by Ralph Helmick, John Outterbridge & Stuart Schechter in 1997.
@ 95 N. Garfield Ave. at Holly St.
A monument of the brothers Jackie and Mack Robinson. Jackie was the first African-American to play in Major League Baseball for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947. Mack won a silver medal in the 1936 Olympics for the 200 meter dash.

USE YOUR PENCIL TO RUB WORDS YOU THINK BEST DESCRIBE THE ROBINSON BROTHERS.

Portait: A two or three-dimensional artwork created in the image of a person or animal.
Pasadena City Hall is the center of government for Pasadena and is an example of the 1920s architecture movement called City Beautiful. The architects built City Hall in the California Mediterranean style, which draws from ancient architecture. The open courtyard with the pillars comes from Roman inspiration.

Designed by Bakewell and Brown in 1927.

Dreamer with Fish Fountain

@ 130 S. Euclid Ave. / Plaza Las Fuentes

Dreamer with Fish Fountain refers to a series of eight site-specific sculptural fountains located throughout the Plaza Las Fuentes.

SITE-SPECIFIC: The word “site” means “place”. “Site-specific” means that the art was made especially for this place.
Three different patterns from the tile wall in the spaces below.

Pattern: The repetition of anything: shapes, lines, or colors.

Designed by Joyce Kozloff in 1990.
@130 S. Euclid Ave./ Plaza Las Fuentes
Joyce Kozloff’s Pasadena, City of Roses refer to the patterned tile walls found throughout Plaza Las Fuentes. The patterns are based on ancient Egyptian, Greek, and Islamic patterns.
Designed by Jun Kaneko in 2003. @ 385 E. Colorado Blvd. on Los Robles Ave. / Western Asset Plaza

A large scale ceramic sculpture that sits in a landscaped recess facing the Pacific Asia Museum. The 1,200 pound, hand-built glazed ceramic sculpture intentionally fills the space. Part of the “Dango” series, each one is unique and can be found all over the world.

Kioku “Memory”

WRITE YOUR FAVORITE MEMORY AT SCHOOL INSIDE THE DANGO.

SYMOMETRY: A type of balance where two halves are mirror images of each other.
DRAW A SHAPE THAT GETS YOUR ATTENTION.

MURAL: Artwork done on a wall.

REPETITION: A way of joining elements so that the same elements are used over and over again.

Designed by Ralph Bacerra in 2003.
@ 385 E. Colorado Blvd. / Western Asset Plaza

Over 3,000 shiny, lustrous and matte surfaces give the circle, square and triangle elements a visual dynamic within the collage. Bacerra’s work is influenced by his travels, Imari ware, enameled silver, gold, and celadon works.
Bighorn Fountain

Designed by Gywnn Murrill in 2008. @ 355 E. Colorado Blvd.

Gywnn Murrill is inspired by the native animals that live in Southern California and explored their form in her work. This fountain features bighorn, a native species from the San Gabriel Mountains.

DRAW ANOTHER NATIVE ANIMAL ON TOP OF BIGHORN FOUNTAIN.

TEXTURE: the feel, appearance, or consistency of a surface.

WHAT INTAGLIO DESIGN WOULD YOU MAKE?
DRAW IT!

INTAGLIO: A design incised or engraved into a material.

The Cougar Intaglio was inspired by the arid climates set in and adjacent to the mountains, common to the city of Pasadena and the state of Montana.
