Student Constituency Agenda

Constituency Liaison: Amanda Diaz, adiaz@americanorchestras.org

Monday, June 7

1:00 – 2:00 PM EDT  Student Welcome Session

This will be a session to welcome students to the Conference environment. We will take time to share how to get the most out of Conference, including what sessions might be of particular interest for students.

- Welcome and Introductions
- How to Get the Most Out of Your Conference Experience
- Conference Highlights

Monday, June 14

5:30 – 7:00 PM EDT  Career Panel

What does it take to be successful as an orchestra professional, and how do you make decisions now that will put you on the path towards your goals? Join us for a mini career panel with professionals from the orchestra field, with plenty of time for Q&A.

1. Welcome / Introductions (5 min)

2. Transition to Breakout Rooms (20 min)

   1. What have been some of the most impactful moments of your Conference experience so far?

   2. Has anything surprised you about Conference?

3. Is there anything you think we should be talking about as an industry that we haven't addressed at Conference?

4. Report out (20 min)

5. Brief pause (5 min)

6. Lightning rounds: Four skills you don't learn in school (25 min)

7. The panel will teach practical skills for success in your career and life.

8. Topics include: relationship building, personal finance, navigating conflict, effective decision making
9. Open Q&A (15 min)

The "Student Constituency: Career Panel" has been generously supported by Giuliano Kornberg, Chief Revenue and Development Officer, Sacramento Philharmonic & Opera.

Thursday, June 17

1:00 - 2:00 PM EDT  Conference Debrief

This closing session for students would offer a time of reflection on the Conference experience, strengthening of new relationships with colleagues, and how students can stay connected after Conference.
