

Welcome Nursing Moms!

We're so glad to have you joining us and want to support you in any way possible! Below, you'll find the FAQ's regarding Lactation Spaces at PRIMER19. Please reach out via email in advance or at any time via the PRIMER Welcome Desk if you have any questions or problems.

1. Where are the designated lactation spaces located?
 - ◆ University Center, 63 Fifth Avenue, lower level (Main PRIMER19 Conference Location)
 - ◆ 6 East 16th Street, lower level
2. How do I reserve one of the lactation spaces?
 - ◆ Schedule online at tinyurl.com/TNSlactation
3. Can I reserve the lactation booths for recurring appointment times?
 - ◆ Yes.
4. How do I get a key? How long can I keep the key?
 - ◆ A key can be obtained in the Campus Security Office located at 68 Fifth Avenue, mezzanine level. The key should be kept until you no longer need it.
 - ◆ Visit the PRIMER19 Welcome Desk or Call Security at 212.229.5101 x4274 with any questions.
5. What does the Lactation Booth look like?

L to R: University Center, 63 Fifth Avenue, lower level; Internal photo

6. Can someone key in if I am using the lactation booth?
 - ◆ No, there is an interior privacy lock that indicates that the booth is occupied. Please remember to lock the booth while you are using it!
7. Is there pumping equipment in the lactation booths?
 - ◆ Yes, the university has purchased two Medela Symphony hospital-grade electric breast pumps. Users will need to bring their own Medela Symphony personal accessory kit. The kits can be purchased on Amazon, Babies R Us, Target, etc. for approximately $30.00
8. Is there a water source in the lactation booths?
 - ◆ No.
9. Is there an electrical outlet in the lactation booths?
 - ◆ Yes, there is!
10. Is there a changing table in the lactation booth?
 - ◆ Yes, there is!
11. Where do I dispose of diapers, recyclables, and landfill after using the lactation booth?
 - ◆ Every New School building has landfill garbage bins alongside recycling bins for paper and metals/plastic.
12. Are the lactation booths cleaned regularly? What if there is a problem with the booth?
 - ◆ The university's Facilities Management department cleans the booths regularly.
 - ◆ If a booth needs cleaning or there is a problem, notify the PRIMER19 Welcome Desk so that we can contact Facilities (ucworkorders@newschool.edu or facilitiesmanagement@newschool.edu or call 212.229.5456.)
13. Do I have to share the booth when I am pumping?
 - ◆ Although there is space for another individual (feel free to bring your child in with you), the booth is for private, single-person use, and only one person can reserve the booth at a time.
14. If I do not use the lactation booths, what other spaces can be used for expressing breast milk?
 - ◆ Please visit the PRIMER19 Welcome Desk for assistance.
15. Is there a refrigerator to store my breast milk?
 - ◆ While we do not have a refrigerator to store breast milk, we will have a cooler and ice available for limited, but secure storage. If possible, please contact PRIMER19 in advance so that we can best prepare to support your refrigeration needs.
