“The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step.”
- Lao Tzu
"How often I found where I should be going only by setting out for somewhere else."

- R. Buckminster Fuller
"It's a dangerous business, going out your door. You step onto the road, & if you don't keep your feet, there's no telling where you might get swept off to."

- J.R.R. Tolkien
"The purpose of life is to live it, to taste experience to the utmost, to reach out eagerly and without fear for newer and richer experience."

— Eleanor Roosevelt
"Live life fully while you're here. Experience everything. Take care of yourself and your friends. Have fun, be crazy, be weird. Go out and screw up! You're going to anyway, so you might as well enjoy the process. Take the opportunity to learn from your mistakes: find the cause of your problem and eliminate it. Don't try to be perfect; just be an excellent example of being human."

- Anthony Robbins
Life shrinks or expands in proportion to one's courage." - Anais Nin
"Wake up and live."
- Bob Marley
"No one realizes how beautiful it is to travel until he comes home and rests his head on his old, familiar pillow."

- Lin Yutang
"You must live in the present, launch yourself on every wave, find your eternity in each moment. Fools stand on their island of opportunities and look toward another land. There is no other land; there is no other life but this."

- Henry David Thoreau
"For once you have tasted flight you will walk the earth with your eyes turned skywards, for there you have been and there you will long to return."

- Leonardo da Vinci
