

TIM HEINTZ

KEYBOARDIST • PRODUCER • COMPOSER

Tim Heintz is an accomplished LA-Based musician, composer and arranger. Having roots as a contemporary jazz keyboardist, his albums topped the Billboard Jazz charts in the late 1980s. After touring the world with artists including Michael McDonald, Chaka Khan, Boz Scaggs and Don Henley, he turned his focus to studio work, arranging and writing for a wide variety of projects. As a composer, he has written music for films including Enemy of the State, Bad Boys II, Deep Blue Sea, and One Hour Photo. He has written themes and music for many network TV Shows and national commercials. Recently, Tim scored the music and film score for "Spirit of Atlantis" at the Kennedy Space Center, and the score for the American Pavillion at the 2012 World Expo in South Korea. His award-winning music is also heard at theme parks worldwide—all of the Disney Parks, Universal Studios, Sea World, and Everland in So. Korea. He is known for being comfortable in a wide range of styles, from traditional orchestra, to pop, jazz and EDM music.
