Need more information or want to get involved?

If you would like more information about our town, need local recommendations, or want to get involved with the Friends of the Sherborn Library Board, please contact Deanna Keene McIntyre at DeannaKeene@gmail.com or Vaishali Verma at dr.vaishaliverma@gmail.com.

Brought to you by the Friends of the Sherborn Library, who provide support for and ongoing improvements of programs, materials, and services of the Library for the benefit of the Sherborn community.

Welcome to Sherborn

The Sherborn Welcome Committee would like to help you settle into town and get acquainted with all it has to offer. We have assembled the following information as a starting point to explore Sherborn. You can learn more by visiting the websites listed within this brochure and signing up for newsletters and alerts where available.

The Welcome Committee is part of the Friends of the Sherborn Library, a group of local volunteers supporting the events and activities of the Sherborn Library.

A Guide to Sherborn

About Our Town

On the town's website, sherbornma.org, you will find the town calendar, information from/about the town's departments, committees, and boards (including vacancies), as well as details regarding Farm Pond, the transfer station, open air burning, emergency preparedness (see the "Family Disaster Plan" pdf), and many other subjects. Also, you can sign up for town E-Alerts and Code Red Emergency Notifications.

Get Connected

Nextdoor.com is a popular neighborhood-based social media site used by residents of Sherborn and surrounding communities. After you sign up and your address is verified, you will find community news, recommendations, and almost anything else (e.g., missing pet, identify this plant, etc). You will also find some groups, based on interests or neighborhoods.

Additionally, some helpful local Facebook groups/pages include:

- The Sherborn Library
- Friends of the Sherborn Library
- Sherborn 01770 Rocks!
- Sherborn Family Group Page
- Buy Nothing Dover/Sherborn (a group that works much like the Swap Shop at the transfer station)

Education

Dover-Sherborn School System

The system includes:

- Pine Hill Elementary School, with an integrated preschool (in Sherborn)
- Chickering Elementary School (in Dover)
- Dover-Sherborn Regional Middle School
- Dover-Sherborn Regional High School

The District is also a proud participant in the METCO program (metcoinc.org), welcoming a total of 40 students from Boston to its schools.

Pine Hill Community School Association (CSA) serves as Pine Hill's PTO. Visit pinehillschoolcsa.org for details.

For more information, visit doversherborn.org.
