Land Acknowledgement

Image Credit: Kanyon Konsulting
Danny Diaz
GOTV Coordinator
LUPE
He/Him
Gratitudes

Thank you to the community partners who contributed their wisdom, knowledge, and experience to this discussion:

Praxis technical assistance partners, staff, Board of Directors, and network of basebuilding organizations.

Thank you to Tilde Language Justice Coop for Spanish translation.
Logistics for our webinar

• This webinar will be recorded and posted online.
• Continuing Education Contact Hours through NCHEC ($15): email jenna@thepraxisproject.org
• Welcome to use chat and Q&A throughout webinar
• Set chat to “all panelists and attendees”
Welcome & Introductions

Let's test the chat tool (to panelists and attendees):

1. Name
2. Pronouns
3. Sector (community, nonprofit, government, etc.)
4. The Native land you are on
5. Your city/state

#PraxisinPraxis #CCPHWebinar
The Praxis Project is a national non-profit organization that works in partnership with national, regional, state, and local partners to achieve health equity and justice for all communities. Our mission is to build healthy communities by transforming the power relationships and structures that affect our lives and communities. Praxis supports policy advocacy and local organizing as part of a comprehensive strategy for change.
Centering Community in Public Health Webinar Series

- Equity-Driven Policy & Practice
- Building & Measuring Community Power
- Community-Centered Healing
- Working Principles for Health Justice & Racial Equity
- #CP4All
- The Praxis of Equity

#PraxisinPraxis #CCPHWebinar
Behind the Brief:
CP4All: Civic Participation for All: Organizing Beyond the Ballot Box
Key Questions:

- How does grassroots-led civic engagement build community?
- How is it advancing inclusion and participation?
- How are we making civic engagement transformative, with attention to healing?
- How is our work helping us to connect and protect Mother Earth?
1. Civic participation is critical for improving the health and wellness of our communities.

Findings:

Cal Wellness is committing an additional $10 million in grants in 2020 to meet urgent needs in California’s communities. The new funds will support nonprofit organizations boldly championing health equity and racial justice, COVID-19 recovery work, and increasing civic engagement.
Findings:

2. Civic participation can - and should be - healing-centered and transformative.
Working Principles for Health Justice & Racial Equity

1. Act with Care
2. Commitment to Transformation
3. Inclusivity
4. Sustainable Solutions
5. Authentic Community Collaboration
Findings:

3. Civic participation is not one-size-fits-all.
Civic Participation in Action
Building Community

LUPE

Building Relationships
LUPE House meeting with colonia neighborhood residents.

They are taking part in helping design their neighborhood improvements with the technical help of architects and engineers.

Here are are reviewing a plat/map of the neighborhood, and identifying areas of improvement.
Building community gardens and bringing people together in community
Discussion

1.) Please type in your question using the Q&A tool.

2.) If we call your name, please click the “raise hand” button. We will unmute you to ask your question aloud.

What questions do you have for the speakers?
What’s Coming Up for Praxis:

• Next Community Wisdom Brief Series
  The Role of Culture in Basebuilding Community Organizing and Health Justice

• Next Webinars:
  • December 3, 2020: Health Equity as a Verb
    https://www.thepraxisproject.org/signup-for-updates
Thank You!

* Please don’t forget to complete the evaluation!

Xavier Morales, PhD, MRP
Executive Director
Xavier@thepraxisproject.org

Jenna Gaarde, MPH
Program Director
jenna@thepraxisproject.org

Candace Cross
Health Justice Fellow
Candace@thepraxisproject.org

praxis_project
praxis_project
@praxisprojectorg
www.thepraxisproject.org