Since 1963 the Regional Planning Commission has served residents governments and businesses of central Alabama. We work to improve the quality of the built environment, to improve economic opportunities for everyone, to improve the quality of the region's air, and help our elderly and disabled residents avoid nursing home placement. Bottom line our team is here to serve you so check out our Web site and let us know what we could do to help.