A LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Maria Su, Psy.D.
Executive Director

Your agency is part of history in San Francisco: the first generation of DCYF grantees to receive funding following the reauthorization of the Children and Youth Fund. The DCYF staff and I respect and appreciate the time, effort, and resources that your agency dedicated to becoming a DCYF grantee, and we extend to you a very warm welcome to the DCYF Family!

In order to ensure that your agency has the information you need to understand the processes and procedures that will impact your funding, all of our grantees will participate in a series of New Grantee Orientation Sessions.

DCYF designed the New Grantee Orientation Sessions using the following four Guiding Principles:

- Establishing Our Partnership. We consider your agency a full partner in our mission to provide all children and youth the opportunities and resources that will help them reach their full potential.

- Setting Up Your Agency for Success. We understand that high quality programming is bolstered by the strength of the agency providing it. The New Grantee Orientation will include programmatic-focused sessions by service area and a fiscally-focused session that will help your agency understand what to expect as a DCYF grantee and set up the work we will do together.

- Building Relationships. Our shared work leverages the relationships that your agency has with the DCYF staff. Establishing, maintaining, and nurturing our relationships with each other will have the effect of yielding better results for the children, youth, and families we will serve.

- Planning for the Future. Unanticipated needs during the funding cycle are likely to arise, and we must be agile enough to make necessary adjustments. We plan to share insight and guidance that will help your agency and our staff to know what we need to do in order to successfully conduct our work.

DCYF is excited to have you as a part of the 2018-23 portfolio of grantees! Together we will provide services that will strengthen the lives of children, youth, Transitional Age Youth, their families, and the people who serve them. Our powerful investment in services for our children and youth throughout their development will make San Francisco an even greater place to grow up. I look forward to working with you on this mission.

Sincerely,

Maria Su, Psy.D.
Executive Director

Enrichment, Leadership & Skill Building

Success in school and in life depends on more than academic ability alone. Research conducted by the Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning has demonstrated that social and emotional competencies have a significant impact on students’ academic performance and persistence in school as well as their broader life success, as measured by a variety of health, wealth and well-being indicators in adulthood. Many skills or competencies fit under the umbrella of social and emotional learning (SEL); SFUSD and other members of the CORE Districts in California—districts that applied for and received a waiver from the No Child Left Behind federal accountability system—adopted the following four constructs as accountability metrics.

1. Growth Mindset. The belief that one’s abilities can grow with effort. Youth with a growth mindset see effort as necessary for success, embrace challenges, learn from criticism, and persist in the face of setbacks.

2. Self-Efficacy. The belief in one’s own ability to succeed in achieving an outcome or reaching a goal. Self-efficacy reflects confidence in the ability to exert control over one’s own motivation, behavior and environment. Self-efficacy can boost youth achievement and emotional health and well-being.

3. Self-Management. The ability to effectively manage one’s emotions, thoughts and behaviors effectively in different situations. This includes managing stress, delaying gratification, motivating oneself, and setting and working towards personal and academic goals. Strong self-management skills are associated with fewer dropouts, better academic and social outcomes, and better outcomes with regard to physical health, substance dependence, personal finances and criminal offenses.

4. Social Awareness. The ability to take the perspective of and empathize with others from diverse backgrounds and cultures, to understand social and ethical norms for behavior, and to recognize family, school, and community resources and supports. Social awareness may contribute to better behavior and achievement in school and increased engagement with community and school resources (associated with better peer relationships, fewer risky behaviors).

Analysis of SEL assessments administered by SFUSD show that African American, Hispanic/Latino and Pacific Islander children and youth consistently score below average across grade levels in at least three of the four SEL areas described above. Factors that the CORE Districts found to contribute to lower SEL scores include stereotypes and bias, low expectations for student’s abilities, unresolved childhood trauma and basic needs not being met. DCYF’s ELS Service Area is designed to support programming to address these issues and promote SEL skills.

In addition to promoting SEL skills, the ELS Service Area is designed to address the learning and developmental needs of children and youth. The National Education Association highlights the value of project based learning as a teaching model; older youth can acquire a great deal of knowledge and skills through hands-on experiences and engagement. Additionally, given the autonomy older youth have over their time outside of school, project based and/or youth-led programming that explores a diverse set of topics and experiences can be a strong method for engaging and retaining this age group of youth in safe and productive activities that support their learning and development.
The Arts and Creative Expression Strategy is designed to provide youth and disconnected TAY with opportunities to explore one or more forms of artistic and creative expression and have structured and intentional ways to express themselves and showcase their work. Arts and Creative Expression programs will provide project based activities that allow participants to learn skills and express their creativity while engaging in an artistic discipline. Arts and Creative Expressions programs target elementary, middle and high school youth as well as disconnected TAY and can include, but are not limited to, disciplines such as visual arts, creative writing, music, dance, theater, film and/or digital media.

STRATEGY GOALS

1. To increase developmentally appropriate opportunities for youth to express themselves.

2. To increase exposure to varying forms of artistic expression (e.g. visual arts, creative writing, music, theater, film, digital media, etc.).

3. To allow youth to explore artistic activities as outlets for social and emotional learning and growth.
Program Structure Requirements

1. School or Community-Based
Programs can operate a school campus or at a facility that is not a public school campus, such as non-profit organization spaces, public recreation or community centers, public libraries and other non-school sites that are safe and accessible to the youth. Arts and Creative Expression programs operating at schools with a DCYF-funded Beacon Center will be required to coordinate with the Beacon Center to access participants and deliver programming.

2. Outreach & Recruitment
Programs must utilize effective methods to access and engage the selected target population(s) that consider the unique characteristics of each selected population.

3. Cohort Structure
Programs must establish a cohort of youth in order to develop meaningful relationships and provide sustainable adult support for participants. The purpose of the cohort structure is to foster peer bonding, develop a culture of learning among participants and strengthen teamwork.

4. Developmentally Appropriate Cohorts
Programs choosing to serve multiple target populations must ensure that cohorts are intentionally constructed to include participants who are at or near the same developmental level in regards to their needs, skills and competencies.

5. Curriculum Based
Program activities must have specific skill-building goals and utilize a sequenced curriculum. Components of a curriculum include learning goals and objectives, as well as corresponding activities that help meet these goals and objectives. The curriculum should be implemented using lesson plans to guide activities that increase in complexity and depth over time. In addition, the curriculum should ensure that participants have opportunities to practice skills and reflect on what they are learning throughout the program session.

6. Engagement, Retention & Support
Programs must have an established approach for engaging and retaining participants as well as reengaging if needed. Programs must be able to meet the needs participants by providing wraparound support in-house, through collaboration with other programs or by referral.

7. Incentives
Programs may provide incentives to engage and retain participants in the program. Incentives can take many forms including, but not limited to, economic (e.g. stipends, educational scholarships, personal savings accounts), in-kind (e.g. bus passes, transportation vouchers, rent subsidies, etc.), and celebratory (e.g. assemblies or award ceremonies).

8 Cultural Competency

Programs must have the ability and capacity to understand and respond appropriately to the unique combination of cultural variables of each participant and utilize culturally competent practices that align with the program model and purpose.

9 Health and Nutrition

Programs must provide a healthy snack if operating for two hours or more. All proposed programs must provide youth with water and avoid serving sugar-sweetened beverages such as soda or sports drinks.
Arts and Creative Expression
Program Content Requirements

1. Structured Activities
   - Programs must include structured activities that provide exposure and engagement with at least one discipline related to the arts and/or creative expression. These activities can be focused around many disciplines including, but not limited to, visual arts, creative writing, music, dance, theater, film, digital media, etc.

2. Project Based Learning
   - Programs must provide activities that are project based that allow participants to engage with an artistic or creative discipline for an extended period of time to investigate and respond to engaging and/or complex questions, problems or challenges. Projects can vary in their topic, scope or duration but should provide opportunities for participants to gain problem-solving, teamwork, communication, adaptability and other relevant skills.

3. Orientation & Team Building
   - Program must provide orientation at the beginning of a program phase, which includes, but is not limited to, activities that promote parent involvement; assessment of participant interests and skill levels; team-building activities that build the cohort as a functioning peer support group; and setting of objectives around learning and skill development for participants as a group and individually. Programs must also build opportunities for participant self-assessment and reflection throughout the program.

4. Culminating Project
   - Programs must provide opportunities for participants to be engaged with project based activities that are sustained, cooperative endeavors that result in a specific end product, culminating event or other tangible achievement that brings a sense of accomplishment and showcases the skills gained within the program.

5. Youth Leadership & Voice
   - Programs must provide leadership opportunities for participants that allow them to lead and facilitate within the program including, but not limited to, setting programmatic goals, identifying and defining issues, choosing discussion topics and selecting reflection activities.

6. Family Partnership
   - Programs must create opportunities for families and caregivers to be connected to the program, as appropriate based on the type of services offered. Family partnership activities include, but are not limited to, parent orientations, volunteer opportunities, family events, parent workshops, connections to resources, etc.

7. Social & Emotional Learning
   - Programs must incorporate social and emotional learning principles into programming including forming positive relationships, growth mindset, self-efficacy, self-management and social awareness.

The Identity Formation Strategy is designed to provide opportunities for youth to increase their self-esteem and sense of purposefully belonging by focusing on the resiliency, strengths and assets of their personal identity. Identity Formation programs will provide project based activities that help participants understand the social and historical contexts that influence the many parts of their personal identities. Through these experiences participants will analyze systems of power and oppression, develop relationships with positive peer and role models and build self-identity and self-esteem. Identity Formation programs target middle and high school youth and can focus on any element that makes up identity including, but not limited to, race, ethnic or cultural background, gender and/or sexual orientation.

STRATEGY GOALS

1. To increase self-esteem and sense of purposeful belonging.
2. To strengthen the dispositional factors that influence positive behaviors and increase self-perception and hopefulness for the future.
3. To increase cultural and historical awareness and understanding of others.
4. To increase opportunities for self-expression.
5. To increase connections to peer support and caring adults.
6. To increase social awareness, resiliency and coping skills.

The Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) Strategy is designed to provide learning opportunities related to science, technology, engineering and math that will help participants develop 21st-Century skills and competencies. STEM programs will be project-based, hands-on and collaborative and will allow youth to work together to investigate a problem, develop possible solutions or explanations, make observations, test out ideas, think creatively and evaluate their findings and process. STEM programs target elementary, middle and high school youth and can focus on many topics including, but not limited to, biological or environmental science, computer science and coding.

STRATEGY GOALS

1. To provide participants with access to hands-on, inquiry-based STEM extracurricular programs and activities.

2. To enrich participants’ educational experience and support social and emotional skills development.

3. To expose participants to a range of STEM related career options.

Service Learning

Strategy Overview

The Service Learning Strategy is designed to provide opportunities for youth and disconnected TAY to practice civic engagement by linking learning with active engagement in their communities. Service Learning programs will provide project-based activities that foster civic engagement beyond traditional community service with the goal of transforming both the participant and the communities where they reside. Participants will conceive, plan, implement and evaluate service learning projects that produce concrete community impact. The Service Learning Strategy differs from the Youth Leadership, Engagement and Organizing Strategy in that programming in this strategy is intended to primarily be led by adult staff rather than youth participants. Service Learning programs target elementary, middle and high school youth as well as disconnected TAY and can include a range of project topics.

STRATEGY GOALS

1. To provide participants with the tools to develop as leaders.

2. To help participants develop a lifelong commitment to civic engagement and the habits, orientations, and practices that contribute to a more just society.

3. To increase participants’ civic engagement through caring, volunteering, organizing and educating others.

4. To support participants in conceiving, planning, implementing and evaluating service learning projects that produce concrete community impact.
Program Structure Requirements

1. School or Community-Based
   - Programs can operate a school campus or at a facility that is not a public school campus, such as non-profit organization spaces, public recreation or community centers, public libraries and other non-school sites that are safe and accessible to the youth. The Sports and Physical Activity Strategy is designed to provide opportunities for youth to engage in competitive and noncompetitive sports and physical activities and to develop key skills such as teamwork and collaboration. Additionally, Sports and Physical Activity programs will help participants positively connect with their peers and develop increased social awareness, emotional bonds and self-esteem. The Sports and Physical Activity Strategy targets youth in elementary, middle and high school and has a particular focus on programs that engage girls. Programs can cover a range of different types of sports and physical activities including, but not limited to, soccer, basketball, swimming, yoga and/or tennis.

STRATEGY GOALS

1. To provide expanded opportunities for participants, especially girls, to engage in sports and/or physical activities.

2. To increase physical activity among participants and support the development of lifelong healthy habits.
Sports and Physical Activity

Program Structure Requirements

1. School or Community-Based

Programs can operate a school campus or at a facility that is not a public school campus, such as non-profit organization spaces, public recreation or community centers, public libraries, and other non-school sites that are safe and accessible to the youth. Sports and Physical Activity programs operating at schools with a DCYF funded Beacon Center will be required to coordinate with the Beacon Center to access participants and deliver programming.

2. Outreach & Recruitment

Programs must utilize effective methods to access and engage the selected target population(s) that consider the unique characteristics of each selected population.

3. Engagement, Retention & Support

Programs must have an established approach for engaging and retaining participants as well as reengaging if needed. Programs must be able to meet the needs participants by providing wraparound support in-house, through collaboration with other programs or by referral.

4. Incentives

Programs may provide incentives to engage and retain participants in the program. Incentives can take many forms including, but not limited to, economic (e.g. stipends, educational scholarships, personal savings accounts), in-kind (e.g. bus passes, transportation vouchers, rent subsidies, etc.), and celebratory (e.g. assemblies or award ceremonies).

5. Cultural Competency

Programs must have the ability and capacity to understand and respond appropriately to the unique combination of cultural variables of each participant and utilize culturally competent practices that align with the program model and purpose.

6. Health and Nutrition

Programs must provide a healthy snack if operating for two hours or more. All proposed programs must provide youth with water and avoid serving sugar-sweetened beverages such as soda or sports drinks.

7. Extended Programming

Programs must offer evening and/or weekend programming options to increase participants’ access to physical activity during non-school hours.
Sports and Physical Activity

Program Content Requirements

1. Structured Activities
   Programs must provide structured activities that have specific skill-building goals and offer experiences in sports and/or physical activities that include ascending opportunities for mastery over time.

2. Orientation & Team Building
   Programs must provide orientation at the beginning of a program phase, which includes, but is not limited to, activities that promote parent involvement; assessments of participant interests and skill levels; team-building activities that build the cohort as a functioning peer support group; and setting of objectives around learning and skill development for participants as a group and individually. Programs must also build opportunities for participant self-assessment and reflection throughout the program.

3. Celebrating Achievements
   Program must provide opportunities for participants to celebrate the skills they have developed as well as their achievements and accomplishments in the program.

4. Youth Leadership & Voice
   Programs must provide leadership opportunities for participants that allow them to lead and facilitate within the program including, but not limited to, setting programmatic goals, identifying and defining issues, choosing discussion topics and selecting reflection activities.

5. Family Partnership
   Programs must create opportunities for families and caregivers to be connected to the program, as appropriate based on the type of services offered. Family partnership activities include, but are not limited to, parent orientations, volunteer opportunities, family events, parent workshops, connections to resources, etc.

6. Social & Emotional Learning
   Programs must incorporate social and emotional learning principles into programming including forming positive relationships, growth mindset, self-efficacy, self-management and social awareness.

Youth Leadership, Engagement and Organizing Strategy Overview

Funded through the Youth Empowerment Allocation set aside of the Children and Youth Fund, the Youth Leadership, Engagement and Organizing Strategy is designed to foster youth leadership and encourage young people to take an active role in their communities through collective empowerment and systemic change. Youth Leadership, Engagement and Organizing programs will provide project-based opportunities for young people to initiate, participate, lead and make decisions on projects that are meaningful and have impact beyond one individual. The Youth Leadership, Engagement and Organizing Strategy differs from the Service Learning Strategy in that programming in this strategy is intended to be primarily led by youth participants rather than adult staff. Youth Leadership, Engagement and Organizing programs target middle and high school youth and disconnected TAY and will focus on at least one of the following two content areas: (1) Youth Leadership and Engagement or (2) Youth-Led Organizing.

STRATEGY GOALS

1. To provide opportunities for participants to advance along the continuum and ladder of youth engagement.

2. To provide opportunities for participants to influence the perception of youth and youth issues among adults and community members.

3. To increase youth participation in local advocacy and policymaking organizations and networks.

4. To provide opportunities for youth voice to be included in institutional and community policies, priorities, and practices.
Youth Leadership, Engagement and Organizing

Program Structure Requirements

1. School or Community-Based
   Programs can operate a school campus or at a facility that is not a public school campus, such as non-profit organization spaces, public recreation or community centers, public libraries and other non-school sites that are safe and accessible to the youth. Youth Leadership, Engagement and Organizing programs operating at schools with a DCYF-funded Beacon Center will be required to coordinate with the Beacon Center to access participants and deliver programming.

2. Outreach & Recruitment
   Programs must utilize effective methods to access and engage the selected target population(s) that consider the unique characteristics of each selected population.

3. Cohort Structure
   Programs must establish a cohort of youth in order to develop meaningful relationships and provide sustainable adult support for participants. The purpose of the cohort structure is to foster peer bonding, develop a culture of learning among participants and strengthen teamwork.

4. Developmentally Appropriate Cohorts
   Programs choosing to serve multiple target populations must ensure that cohorts are intentionally constructed to include participants who are at or near the same developmental level in regards to their needs, skills and competencies.

5. Curriculum Based
   Activities must have specific skill-building goals and utilize a curriculum. Components of a curriculum include learning goals and objectives, as well as corresponding activities that help meet these goals and objectives. The curriculum should be implemented using lesson plans to guide activities that increase in complexity and depth over time. In addition, the curriculum should ensure that participants have opportunities to practice skills and reflect on what they are learning throughout the program session.

6. Engagement, Retention & Support
   Programs must have an established approach for engaging and retaining participants as well as reengaging if needed. Programs must be able to meet the needs participants by providing wraparound support in-house, through collaboration with other programs or by referral.

7. Incentives
   Programs may provide incentives to engage and retain participants in the program. Incentives can take many forms including, but not limited to, economic (e.g. stipends, educational scholarships, personal savings accounts), in-kind (e.g. bus passes, transportation vouchers, rent subsidies, etc.), and celebratory (e.g. assemblies or award ceremonies).

8 Cultural Competency
Programs must have the ability and capacity to understand and respond appropriately to the unique combination of cultural variables of each participant and utilize culturally competent practices that align with the program model and purpose.

9 Health and Nutrition
Programs must provide a healthy snack if operating for two hours or more. All proposed programs must provide youth with water and avoid serving sugar-sweetened beverages such as soda or sports drinks.
Youth Leadership, Engagement and Organizing

Program Content Requirements

1. Content Areas (One of the following)

   - Youth Leadership and Engagement: Program content must seek to advance youth along the continuum of youth engagement towards the goal of systemic change (see Section 9 for the Continuum and Ladder of Youth Engagement). Programs must include authentic youth leadership that creates opportunities for youth to develop historical and cultural identity, become decision makers and problem solvers and participate in community projects. Programs must also raise awareness in key issues and help participants analyze power and create action, foster their collective identities and engage in advocacy and negotiation.

   - Youth-Led Organizing: Program content must be youth-led with the goal of creating systemic change. Programs must ensure that youth are involved in the program or agency as core staff or part of the governing body. Program elements must support youth in building a membership base and engage them in direct action and mobilization as well as the building of alliances and coalitions. Programs must also include youth-led community projects and be supported by adult allies.

2. Project Based Learning

   - Programs must provide activities that are project-based that allow participants to engage with at least one of the content areas listed above for an extended period of time to investigate and respond to engaging and/or complex questions, problems or challenges. Projects can vary in their topic, scope or duration but should provide opportunities for participants to gain problem-solving, teamwork, communication, adaptability and other relevant skills.

3. Orientation & Team Building

   - Program must provide orientation at the beginning of a program phase, which includes, but is not limited to, activities that promote parent involvement; assessment of participant interests and skill levels; team-building activities that build the cohort as a functioning peer support group; and setting of objectives around learning and skill development for participants as a group and individually. Programs must also build opportunities for participant self-assessment and reflection throughout the program.

4. Culminating Project

   - Programs must provide opportunities for participants to be engaged with project based activities that are sustained, cooperative endeavors that result in a specific end product, culminating event or other tangible achievement that brings a sense of accomplishment and showcases the skills gained within the program.

5. Youth Leadership & Voice

   - Programs must provide leadership opportunities for participants that allow them to lead and facilitate within the program including, but not limited to, setting programmatic goals, identifying and defining issues, choosing discussion topics and selecting reflection activities.

6. Family Partnership

   - Programs must create opportunities for families and caregivers to be connected to the program, as appropriate based on the type of services offered. Family partnership activities include, but are not limited to, parent orientations, volunteer opportunities, family events, parent workshops, connections to resources, etc.

7. Social & Emotional Learning

   - Programs must incorporate social and emotional learning principles into programming including forming positive relationships, growth mindset, self-efficacy, self-management and social awareness.

STRATEGY GOALS

1. To provide participants with the opportunity to learn about grant making by implementing grants to other youth for youth-led projects.

2. To build the knowledge, competencies, and confidence of participants to help them better succeed in 21st-Century economic, political, intellectual and cultural life.

3. To provide participants with youth leadership opportunities and positive engagement within communities across San Francisco.

Program Content Requirements

1. Grant Making
   - In the following content areas:
     - Youth Trends and Needs: grants in this content area focus on projects that seek to address the evolving interests and issues of concern for youth in San Francisco.
     - Equity and Social Justice: grants in this content area focus on projects that seek to understand and address the root causes of community needs or issues.
     - General Grant Making: grants in this content area focus broadly on general youth-led projects without a specific theme or focus area.

2. Youth-Led Project Development & Support
   - Programs must conduct outreach to potential youth grant seekers throughout San Francisco and SFUSD by utilizing creative media strategies and formal presentations. In addition, programs must support, assist and provide capacity building to youth grant seekers, adult allies and their supporting agencies to design fundable proposals and implement successful projects. Project development can be provided in groups or one on one and can cover topics that include, but are not limited to, participant and volunteer recruitment, event planning and budgeting.

3. Adult Allyship for Youth-Led Projects
   - Programs must ensure that their grant making process includes adult allies who will give input and set general parameters while ensuring that youth make key decisions. Programs must provide clear guidelines and support to adult allies to ensure that projects remain youth-led.

4. Youth-Led Project Evaluation
   - Program participants must design and conduct evaluations to measure the impact and success of their grant making. Participants will also provide feedback for improvement and support to youth grantees.

5. Orientation & Team Building
   - Program must provide orientation at the beginning of a program phase, which includes, but is not limited to, activities that promote parent involvement; assessments of participant interests and skill levels; team-building activities that build the cohort as a functioning peer support group; and setting of objectives around learning and skill development for participants as a group and individually. Additional Requirements for Programs Serving Disconnected Transitional Age Youth (TAY)

1. Participant Eligibility

Participants must meet the definition of disconnected transitional age youth. The City Charter defines disconnected TAY as youth ages 18 to 24 as who “are homeless or in danger of homelessness; have dropped out of high school; have a disability or other special needs, including substance abuse; are low-income parents; are undocumented; are new immigrants and/or English Learners; are Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, and Questioning (LGBTQQ); and/or are transitioning from the foster care, juvenile justice, criminal justice or Special Education system.”

2. Recruitment

Programs must utilize effective methods to recruit and engage disconnected TAY. These methods must take into account the disconnected nature of the target population and the high likelihood that these youth will not be engaged through conventional recruitment methods.

The Department of Children, Youth and Their Families has adopted the Youth Program Quality Assessment Tool (YPQA) from the David P. Weikart Center for Youth Program Quality as our official programmatic assessment tool. DCYF expects that by the end of fiscal year 2020-21 all programs will be utilizing the YPQA tool and resources.

What does the YPQA assess?
- Safe environment
- Supportive environment
- Interaction
- Engagement
- Youth-centered policies and practices
- High expectations for youth and staff
- Access

The YPQA is designed to measure the quality of youth programs and identify staff training needs. It has been validated by use in in community organizations, schools, camps, and other places where youth have fun, work, and learn with adults. The YPQA is suitable for youth in grades K-12.

The YPQA evaluates the quality of youth experiences while attending workshops and classes, completing group projects, and participating in meetings and regular program activities. For staff, the YPQA self-assessment process is a great way to see what is really happening in their programs and to build professional competencies.

The David P. Weikart Center for Youth Program Quality empowers education and human service leaders to adapt, implement, and scale best-in-class, research validated quality improvement systems to advance child and youth development.

The David P. Weikart Center’s quality assessments are based in positive youth development research and the desire to create a safe, supportive, and productive environment for youth. The approach, pictured in the pyramid, is premised on the belief that it is a youth worker’s job to set up an environment for youth in which needs are met and learning is encouraged—to create a space in which youth can thrive. The pyramid provides a way to organize the many, many things a youth worker does to build a great experience for young people.

DCYF GRANTEE EXPECTATIONS

- Annually, all programs will receive at least one External Assessment from a DCYF Program Specialist.
- Twice a year, all programs will be expected to complete an Internal Assessment.
- Designated program staff will attend a mandatory two-day YPQA Basics Orientation and Training (this will only need to be completed once). This orientation is designed to welcome you into the world of assessment and introduce the YPQA tool.
- Designated program staff will attend a mandatory “Planning with Data Workshop.” This workshop is designed to show you how to use the data from the internal and external assessments as well as give you an opportunity to plan out your quality improvement plan.
Grantee Resources
Technical Assistance & Capacity Building

The Department of Children, Youth & Their Families’ (DCYF) vision for Technical Assistance & Capacity Building (TA/CB) is that all funded Community Based Organization (CBO) contractors are organizationally, fiscally, and programmatically sound. CBO’s provide a wide variety of youth services, and play a significant role in the social, cultural and economic vitality of all communities. Therefore, the viability of these agencies is critical to community development and stability in the neighborhoods they serve.

DCYF is deeply committed to working in partnership with our grantees to strengthen organizational capacity and continuously improve the quality of programming. Over the last several years we have expanded our TA/CB offerings in order to meet grantees where they are and work with them to get them to where they want to be. DCYF grantees have access to programmatic TA workshops, coaching and cohorts, and our recently created Organizational Sustainability Initiative (OSI), which focuses on fiscal and administrative health.

As we look forward to our next funding cycle, we will be piloting new approaches and offerings including DCYF University. We are very excited to continue to offer the types of resources and support that help take agencies, programs and staff to the next level of quality programming and are looking forward to even more offerings in the future!

There are multiple ways that grantees will be able to receive support, gain skills, and build the capacity of their staff, their program, and their agency.

Workshops/Trainings
One-off workshops on a variety of topics such as Youth Development, Trauma Informed Care, Behavior Management, Social Emotional Learning, Fiscal Management, Work-Based Learning and Juvenile Justice Reform. These workshops can range from 4hrs to 6hrs long.

Peer Learning Cohorts
The cohorts offered by DCYF typically require 3-6 month commitments, and involve intense involvement with curriculum. Cohorts are offered in a variety of content areas.

Coaching and Consulting
Staff are able to receive coaching hours that are customized to meet the needs of the program and or agency.

DCYF University
This program is designed to provide program staff the opportunity to become “Specialists” by delving deep into specific subject matter.

DCYF University

DCYF is embracing a holistic approach to Technical Assistance & Capacity Building (TA/CB) by designing a multilevel system for training and support. We aim to build a stronger field of youth workers and improve the quality of services that are available to San Francisco children, youth and their families. For individual youth workers we will provide professional development opportunities that increase the skills and abilities needed to implement high quality youth development programming. On the programmatic level our efforts will focus on building the capacity and ability for programs to engage in continuous quality improvement and to support staff with their professional development. On the agency level we will help organizations build and strengthen their systems and infrastructure in order to solidify the foundation required for effective programs and staff.

In order to successfully implement this approach, DCYF launched DCYF University in fall 2017. While we will maintain DCYF’s current TA/CB offerings, DCYF University will provide a more intentionally focused effort, embedded within our TA/CB system that can be used to take individuals, programs and agencies to the next level. DCYF University will mirror in that participants will complete core courses, pre-requisites and specialization courses (courses for the major).

SPECIALIZATIONS

offered Fall 2018

Youth Development Best Practices with a Training of the Trainer Focus
Youth Development Best Practices with a Trauma Informed Focus

Upcoming Training Calendar

DCYF is committed to improving program quality and driving better outcomes for program participants. In order to do this, we invest in and provide a wide range of Technical Assistance and Capacity Building workshops and cohorts to supplement and support the professional development of staff who administer and deliver programs. We offer workshops and cohorts for front-line staff, program administrators, and non-profit executives at all levels of experience. Visit the Technical Assistance and Capacity Building page on the DCYF website to access our training calendar and sign up for workshops and cohorts: http://tinyurl.com/dcyfsupport

GIVE US A SHOUT OUT

Engage with the DCYF Community Engagement and Communications Team through the power of storytelling.

The story of the DCYF Family is the story of how our grantees make San Francisco a great place to grow up. We want to partner with your program to amplify and share your stories. We want to be sure you are connected to everything DCYF offers and does in the community.

Share your program stories from multiple perspectives: program participants, parents, your staff, and your agency as a whole.

Subscribe us to your newsletters.

Send us pictures and videos of your program in action.

Send us articles and award announcements.

...everything that tells the tale of how your program benefits SF.

#DCYFFamily
DCYF recently rolled out the #DCYFFamily hashtag to collect and share stories from the department and the stories of our grantees. Please add it to posts about your program!

Invite Us to Your Events
We love to attend events hosted by our grantees, so please let us know what you have coming up.

Service Provider Working Group (SPWG)
As a DCYF grantee, we encourage your participation in the DCYF Service Provider Working Group (SPWG). Established with the re-authorization of the Children and Youth Fund (2014), the SPWG advises DCYF’s Oversight and Advisory Committee on funding priorities, policy development, the planning cycle, evaluation design and plans, and any other issues of concern to the SPWG related to the Children and Youth Fund or the responsibilities of DCYF or other departments receiving monies from the Children and Youth Fund. You can expect contact from a current SPWG member in the coming weeks. Contact Jennifer Berger, SPWG Chair at jberger@kidsclub.org for any questions or more information.

If you have any questions, concerns, or comments about DCYF’s Community Engagement and Communications work – or if you would just like to say hello! – please email us at communications@dcyf.org
Please note this is only a partial list of DCYF team members with frequent contact and interaction with our grantee portfolio. To access the complete list of the DCYF staff, please visit www.dcyf.org.
