C. Public Comment:
   • Chris Tsukida asked for clarity on cause for decreases in FY 22-23 to FY23-24 in City Grant Program area. Heidi Burbage stated that decrease is attributed to end of FY22-23 one-time addbacks from the Board of Supervisors as well as from JPD, but our base grant amount remains the same. Director Su clarified that the addbacks were specific to the COVID-19 response.
   • Cindy B asked if there will be funding for nonprofit organizations. Director Su clarified that CBOs and nonprofit organizations are the same.

VII. Initiative Report Updates
A. DCYF Jasmine Dawson and Abigail Stewart-Kahn shared the report.
B. Member Comments & Questions.
   • Vice Chair Curry asked clarifying question regarding “unfinished learning” recommendation area for the Recovery Plan. Abigail Stewart-Kahn stated that this recommendation area focused on ways to improve children’s learning outside of the school day during afterschool programming and support for parents with online learning.
C. Public Comment
   • Chris Tsukida offered appreciation to Abigail Stewart-Kahn for engaging community input and asked in what ways revenues are tied to SF RISE Plan, specifically in expanding for additional opportunities or incurring city dollars in regards $2 million cut from SFUSD over the next two years. In what way is it a recommendation area or a major part of the SF RISE work? Director Su answered that the SF RISE work was created through city ordinance by Supervisor Ronen to focus on learning loss experienced by SFUSD students. There is crossover, but the Recovery Plan includes all children regardless of public-school status. In terms of funding for both projects, Supervisor Ronen has stated that SF RISE will be fundraised from local philanthropists. The Recovery Plan is in conversation with City Departments.
