“The Sundays that I spent assisting with camper check-in at Camp Baker were wonderful and often the best part of my week. I loved being a (hopefully) welcoming face and warm presence for new and returning campers and it is incredible to see the joy and excitement of past participants. Everyone deserves to have those enriching adventures, so I thank SOAR365 for making it possible.”

Sunday Check-In Volunteer Aimee Selleck

Volunteer duties include:

- Greeting program participants and family members as they arrive for check-in
- Making sure each camper receives a number upon arrival
- Recording the camper’s name and number on a tracking sheet and making sure that campers are processed in numerical order
- Calling campers by number to proceed to the appropriate medical station (station 1: vitals, station 2: medical processing, station 3: medication packaging)
- Minimizing traffic in the area of the medical stations
- Engaging families in friendly conversation while waiting; handing out water & snacks as requested
- Make medical staff aware of campers who have had to wait for excessive periods
- Making counselors aware of campers who have finished check-in and are ready to be escorted to the cabin
- Helping to streamline the process as much as possible and making it a pleasant experience for campers and families
