PASTOR'S NOTE

Dear Saints,

This weekend we celebrate The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Feast, as the name implies, gives voice to our praise of who God is in himself: It gives us an opportunity to reflect on God's inner, triune, life.

There are many reasons why knowing God, as he is in himself, is important. The one that always comes to mind for me is the fact that we are made in the image and likeness of God. If we want to know who we are, then we must in some measure know who God is.

God, as he is in himself, is an eternal exchange of glorifying, self-forgetful, other-oriented love. At his core (and all the way through) God is a community of persons, a communion of persons.

Our very identity, then, is being in community. Through and with and in Christ, we are caught up in this love exchange of the tri-personal God. In this exchange we are made to create community by embodying God's love (yes, the self-forgetful, other-oriented kind) for everyone we encounter.

Let me add some force to that: This is what drives us to keep gathering as a church, even in difficult times. Heck, even in easy times! Community, our existence as a worshipping people drawn together by Jesus to bring God's love to life in the world, is no added extra of the Christian life. We aren't who we were made to be without it!

In the Peace of the Three-Personal God,

Father Daniel

A SPECIAL 'THANK YOU'

Dear OLMC parish family,

We, the Trainor family, extend our most heartfelt gratitude to all of you who have made Fr. Wade's First Mass and celebration the very special day that it was.

The amount of preparation that so obviously went into making the day incredible was so apparent, and our gratefulness cannot be adequately put into words.

Beginning with the formatting and printing of invitations and programs, which were awesome, continuing with preparations and rehearsals of the beautifully sung hymns/chants which made it feel that we were truly participating in something very special. The altar servers carried out their responsibilities so impressively; their families can surely be proud of them. Fr. Dan's homily was so moving and meaningful for this Ascension Sunday and Fr. Wade's first mass.

The reception following mass was so enjoyable! The various food dishes that were served to all were delicious and we know that many were busy in the preparations for this celebration.

All of this being said, we know that we are only touching on the surface of all things that went into the preparations for this day.

Most importantly, however, is that we thank you for receiving Fr. Wade into your wonderful parish family!

Most sincerely,
 the Trainor family
