MISSION STATEMENT:

We exist to be a light to the world, and we live out Christ's call on our lives
by worship and witness.

In prayer and sacrament
God enkindles our hearts that we might bring the fire of his love
to everyone we encounter.

Statement of Bishop and Pastor
Our Lady of Mount Carmel
August 26-27, 2023

Dear Saints,

Bishop Sweeney has asked that I share some important information with you as your pastor. As a part of his responsibility as diocesan shepherd and my own charge for the care of souls as pastor, there is difficult news to share concerning Father Wade Trainor that will leave all of us here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel heavy-hearted.

On August 4, 2023, Father Wade traveled to the Jersey Shore with two young people of the parish with the permission of their parents but unaccompanied by another adult. During this trip, Father Wade was involved in a motor vehicle accident. Police investigation revealed that Father Wade was allegedly intoxicated at the time of the accident. Father Wade was arrested and charged with driving while intoxicated and other associated charges.

On August 5, 2023, as a result of this serious lapse in judgment and violation of the Pastoral Code of Conduct, Bishop Sweeney directed Father Wade to begin a lengthy period of self-care which I fully endorsed as an important first step.

In addition to a legal summons to be answered, a full investigation of Father Wade's violation of the Pastoral Code of Conduct, especially his sharing of alcohol with minors, must be resolved in the months ahead. Father Wade has fully cooperated with this investigation and has immersed himself in addressing these issues. The Diocese of Paterson will keep us fully informed as the canonical and legal processes unfold and will cooperate with law enforcement as requested.

While Father Wade's assignment here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel concludes on a very sad note, we keep him in prayer as a brother in Christ and commend him to the care of our Patroness, Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

The Bishop and his co-workers in the diocesan ministry are available to provide further information regarding the process of healing in the life of our parish and Father Wade as it unfolds while at the same time maintaining the privacy of all of those involved. No doubt, the public record will also provide further information as we go forward.

If you have had any difficulties with Father Wade's behavior or have witnessed any behavior that is inappropriate, the Bishop and I both encourage you to make those concerns known to appropriate authorities and/or diocesan officials immediately. Any inquiries or contact with the Diocese can be made to Mr. Eric Wilsusen, Director of Child and Youth Protection. His email address, should you want to talk to him at any point, is ewilsusen@patersondiocese.org. His phone number is (973) 777-8818 x 257.

Know of my prayers for you and yours these days, my friends. I take heart in knowing that we are together in prayer, gathered under the mantle of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. We pray especially that Our Lady, whose good counsel we implore, will lead us and keep us ever hopeful in the days ahead.

In the Peace of Christ,
Father Daniel

LIVING IN THE LIGHT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

On the first Friday of the school year, we invite all parishioners and school families to join our students, faculty, and staff in celebrating the Mass of the Holy Spirit. A tradition dating back to the 16th century, the Mass of the Holy Spirit is an opportunity for a Catholic school community to begin the academic year with right worship. We pray especially for the wisdom and guidance of God's Spirit, knowing that this shared and sacred mission—that of forming the hearts, minds, and souls of our students—demands a radical dependence on the grace poured out on us through the gifts of the Spirit.

This year, our halls and classrooms will be more full than ever with students who yearn to be known and loved. Our faculty are committed to challenging their students, nurturing in them a sense of wonder and inquiry. We look forward to growing closer as a community, committed to encouraging one another in virtue. With our mission before us, beginning the school year in prayer is a visible sign of our commitment to that mission, and our steadfast reliance on the grace of the Holy Spirit we need to remain faithful to that mission. We recognize with gratitude the abundance that continues to overflow in the life of our parish and in the flourishing of our school, but our success cannot be measured simply by enrollment numbers, academic achievement, or school pride. We want to be saints, and so we begin by calling on the Holy Spirit to shed light along the paths that mission will take for us this year.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.

“O Holy Spirit,
descend plentifully
into my heart.
Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there thy cheerful beams.”

—Saint Augustine
