

RAINBOW ECOSCIENCE

Plant Healthcare Training Workshop

DESCRIPTION

Plant healthcare is unlike anything else in the Green Industry and requires specialized tools to perform the work properly. Rainbow Ecoscience in coordination with Riley Coy and Jen Olson have come together for a half day PHC workshop. Combining world-class horticultural and arboricultural research and experience to facilitate a better understanding of current and future plant care issues.

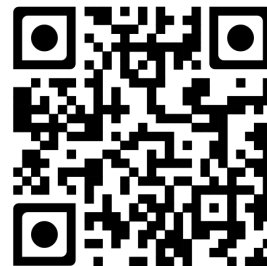

Attendees will be leaving with a toolbox of knowledge on plant health care concerns affecting Oklahoma.
