

TIP OF THE MONTH

CONNECT

#WestColfax

Connection matters now more than ever.

Get online with us.

The West Colfax Community is one of the strongest and most resilient I have ever seen.

Connecting and sharing and building together keeps us strong.

Getting your business online, following, liking, commenting, and sharing content from your favorite businesses is the bread and butter of spreading the word while the world is online.

Included these every time you share content from yourself and your friends.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

We're working with local businesses to share the best of the best safely.

Get ready to "travel", shop, and share.
