2019 Portland Architecture Awards Announced

2019 AIA Portland Honor Award: Redfox Commons, LEVER Architecture

On October 25, 2019, AIA Oregon members and friends gathered to celebrate design excellence at Revolution Hall in Portland, Oregon.

Thank you to all attendees, sponsors, and jurors for another memorable celebration!

A jury of architects from Montreal, Quebec selected 10 project awards; energy data collected from project submissions helped to determine two Architecture 2030 Awards; and the AIA Oregon Executive Committee selected 3 Professional Achievement Awards.

Congratulations to the 2019 Awards Recipients!

BCD Structures Board Quarterly - Nov 6th, 9:30am

The Building Code Structures board will be reviewing a proposal to amend the 2019 OSSC to include Carbon Monoxide detection and alarm in new A, B and M occupancies. There are exceptions in the proposals for occupancies with a threshold of occupants (A:300, B and M: 500). If there are comments which you wish to make on this subject, provide them to BCD prior to the meeting or in the public comment section of the meeting in person at Building Codes Division in Conference Room A. The next BCD structures board meeting will occur February 5, 2020 at the same time and location.

Call for Section Directors-Elect

AIA in Oregon reorganized at the start of this year from four local chapters and the state council to a single state chapter (AIA Oregon) with five local sections (AIA Bend, AIA Eugene, AIA Portland, AIA Salem, and AIA Southern Oregon). The former model included five boards, each with about a dozen board members to a single Board of Directors with 11 voting members. This includes a Director from each Section.

The Section Directors are expected to perform two very different duties; one is an active board member engaged with running the Chapter and directing the Executive Vice President, and the other is to lead the activities of the local sections. The term for a Section Director is two years.

If you are interested in the role of Section Director Elect, learn more at the link below.

Architects Without Borders - Call for Volunteers

Help needed for two projects

For the Debre Birhan School in Ethiopia they need a volunteer who can work from existing construction drawings of a composting latrine building to produce one or two 3D exterior color images showing construction materials and details such as brick coursing, as well as the sloping site where the facility will be built. This job is estimated at three to six hours and the work product is needed before the end of October.

For the Q Center renovation in Portland they need one or two volunteers with skills in AutoCAD, Rhino, and/or SketchUp to create 2D and 3D images. Volunteers can expect to contribute a few hours of time per week on an ongoing basis.

Neither of these volunteer opportunities requires travel. If you are interested send your name, contact information and a brief summary of your relevant skills to volunteer@awboregon.org. Please include the name of the project in the subject line.
