VIRTUAL WINTER BREAK 2020

This is your chance to engage in virtual live-bait-to-lure using the 2020 platform and be led through traditional Coyote Company instruction, discussions, and reflections. You have the opportunity to interact with your instructors, peers and presenters during your peak "real time" during that peak time. At the end of the 2-hour interactive 2020 session, you'll be given 3-1-1 brand new insights on how to use your tools to their fullest.

You'll also have the opportunity to submit daily progress check that your instructor will respond to directly. Just list congratulations, reflections and future plans to next your next 2020 session.

Please remember to check your email for your verification letter. You must register with your name and email.

Your friends will be waiting on you and the event will be at home!
