

A MILK IN THE MATRIX MANIFESTO

1. Everybody has a special talent & quality that is unique to them to add to the world.

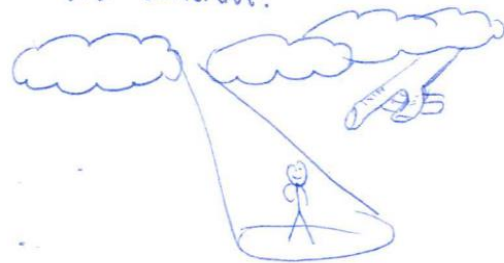

2. It's not a million-to-one shot that you get to do something great in life...

...it's one in a million people who give themselves the permission to dream big & go for it.

3. Creativity is not endowed, it's inherent.

4. Many of life's struggles are due to the fact that we are a cornucopia of primal instincts optimized for life in a cave.

5. Many of life's successes are due to the fact that we are a cornucopia of primal instincts optimized for life in a cave.

7. Weaknesses = Strengths in disguise.

8. We get one shot to spend our lives working hard...

6. The Craziest greatest ideas were just crazy right up until they were great.
