Location: On approximately 7,800 acres of private land in Orangeville, New York (Wyoming County). Approximately forty miles southeast of Buffalo

Ownership: Developed, owned, and operated by Invenergy

Operational Date: 2014

Capacity: 94 MW

#/Type of Turbines: 59 / GE 1.6 MW

Homes Powered: Approximately 38,000 homes per year

Job Creation: More than 100 workers were employed during peak construction; the project now employs four full-time operations and maintenance staff.

Local Economic Impact: Orangeville pays more than $1.96 million in tax payments, landowner payments, and staff salaries.

PPA/Offtake: Power is delivered into the New York Independent System Operator, with Renewable Energy Credits (RECs) sold to the New York State Energy Research and Development Authority

Invenergy in New York
- More than 220 MW in New York state wind power generation projects that are in operation.
- In addition to Orangeville, Invenergy’s 112.5 MW High Sheldon Wind Farm (also in Wyoming County) began commercial operations in 2009 and 16 MW Marsh Hill Wind project (Steuben County) began commercial operations in 2014.

Renewables & New York
- Ranks 13th among all states for installed wind power generation capacity
- Percentage of New York’s electricity provided by wind in 2013: 2.85%

  SOURCE: American Wind Energy Association - 2016

More About Invenergy
- North America’s largest independent, privately held renewable energy provider
- Develops, owns and operates clean energy facilities in the United States, Canada, Latin America, Japan & Europe
- Developed more than 13,700 MW of clean energy projects in operation, in construction or in advanced development, including 67 wind, 10 solar, 11 natural gas and 6 advanced energy storage facilities