Where in the Bible does it say register to vote?

Romans 13:1: Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God.

Exodus 18:21: Moreover, look for able men from all the people, men who fear God, who are trustworthy and hate a bribe, and place such men over the people as chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.

Deuteronomy 1:13: Choose for your tribes wise, understanding, and experienced men, and I will appoint them as heads over you.

Ecclesiastes 10:2: A wise man’s heart inclines him to the right, but a fool’s heart to the left.

Proverbs 29:2: When the godly are in authority, the people rejoice. But when the wicked are in power, they groan.

Psalm 109:8: May his days be few; may another take his place of leadership.

Acts 1:20: Let another take his office.

Daniel 2:20-21: “He removes kings and sets up kings, he gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to them that know understanding.”

God tells us to obey a legitimate governing authority. Politics is of the world. We will not win the world for Christ through politics. Neither political party is close to being a Christian party. However, God does acknowledge the authority of civic entities in the political sphere. Because it is a dangerous world, we need governments to control the kinds of behaviors sinful people will exhibit.
For example, police in our countries are charged with protecting good people from those who would do evil to us. God gave us free will to make wise decisions. He does not cause evil, but he allows it. As Christians, we know what evil is - those who promote abortion, same-sex fornication, adultery, pedophilia, human trafficking, murder and more.

Good laws restrict evil. People who relax good laws that restrain immorality, such as removing prayer, removing the Bible, abortion, approving sodomy, approving same-sex “marriage,” allowing obscenity to be viewed by our precious children that leads to viewing pornography in schools; these are the last people we should vote into office. Perhaps evil leaders are permitted as God’s judgment upon a nation in order to bring repentance (Isaiah 3:12). Perhaps it is permitted to show the downright depravity of sin, and to bring a nation to prayer. Either way, we must choose to obey God’s Biblical mandate and select (vote for) able men who fear God and are trustworthy.

Many Biblical non-profits parse candidates and issues to their best ability and make voter guides available. There is no excuse not to vote. If we don’t vote, we abdicate our right and get what is wrong, and thus we have no right to complain.

Either way, we must respect those who are elected whether we like them or not. Their positions of authority are to be respected. Your one vote matters. www.OpenBible.info/.
