

Level of Care Assessment

Determine your loved one's level of need to ensure they can safely live their best life.

The following signs may mean your loved one can live independently. JABA Community Centers provide friendship and meals for independent seniors.

- Remembers: time of day medication hygiene medical appointments
- Safely: moves dresses weather appropriate bathes/showers cooks
- Judgement: careful with sharp objects discuss concerns with appropriate person

If your loved one exhibits the following, it may be a sign that they need more support. Continue through the checklist to see how you can care for their needs.

- Forgets: time of day medication hygiene medical appointments
- Difficulty: mobility dressing weather appropriate bathing/showering cooking
- Judgement: careless with sharp objects invites strangers into home

Home with Family

Individuals who can safely live with caregiver(s). JABA Respite & Enrichment Center can provide engagement, meals, caregiver respite and support.

- Exhibits the signs above. Needs memory care.
- Support system has ability to care for the needs of your loved one with help from community resources.

Assisted Living

Individuals who can safely live in a residential environment with supports in place to assist with daily tasks.

- Exhibits the signs above. Needs memory care.
- Support system needs help in caring for the above needs.
- Behavior likely to cause harm to self or others.

Nursing Home

Individuals who would be safest in a nursing home with skilled staff to support their needs. Ombudsmen can advocate for residents' rights.

- Exhibits the signs above. Needs memory care.
- Behavior likely to cause harm to self or others.
- Needs nursing services (IVs, medical equipment, wound care, etc.)