E. UNFINISHED BUSINESS
1. Wellness Policy Discussion
   • Committee continued discussion of potential wellness policy and what Board members thought would be appropriate to include. Topics included:
     1. Focusing on the whole person including healthy living, exercise and mental/behavioral health topics (mindfulness, stress reduction, etc.).
     2. Providing time to participate in activities versus money/incentives
     3. Seeking out seminars for group learning from existing resources (CIRMA, EAP)
     4. Prioritizing business choices that assist in expanding wellness initiatives in the agency (i.e. insurance policies that address wellness issues)
   • Sartucci added to the discussion based upon her experience with PHAB. This policy should be part of an overall policy or plan for assuring a supportive work environment for employees. Included are policies and activities such as employee recognition; accommodations for employees like lactation areas for new mothers; and health and wellness topics in personnel policies were things to consider.
   • Brown will begin working on incorporating discussion into CCHD policy and practices.

F. NEW BUSINESS
1. Community Health Coordinator Position Discussion
   • Brown brought to the committee’s attention that the current Health Educator was functioning beyond the scope of their assigned job description. Grant requirements and agency needs had added duties including contractor supervision and communication through website and social media.
Brown suggested reviewing and revising inactive Community Health Coordinator (CHC) position to incorporate the current duties of the position since it more closely resembles the functions being performed. Additionally, incorporation of this position could provide a career ladder within Community Health section going from Health Educator to Community Health Coordinator to Assistant Director for Community Health.

Committee members agreed with rationale behind revising CHC job description. Brown will revise and bring to HR Committee next month for review.
