Synopsis
A not-so-distant future. The wasting disease has ravaged the planet. POC survivors unlucky enough to avoid becoming zombies are forcibly interned, charged with maintaining gigantic metal hammers. Armed with weapons and memories from before, two Vietnamese American warriors look down the long hill toward the camp, weighing their odds in pursuit of something better.
MARK SWEENEY  he/him
(series sound design & engineering)

Mark is a Minneapolis based composer, writer and theatre-maker whose scores have been called ‘Alluring’ (Star Tribune) and ‘Beguiling’ (City Pages). He is a founding member of Perpetual Motion Theatre Company (Toronto International Fringe Festival) and Catalog Models (sold-out run, 2014 Minnesota Fringe Festival), and previously a company member of Umbrella Collective where he workshopped his musical ‘A Squid Has Three Hearts’. He’s performed with Actors Theatre of Minnesota, Artistry, The Twin Cities Improv Festival, HUGE Theatre, and toured with Troupe America. He is the creator of Twin Cities Song Story, a podcast exploring the process of creating music for the Minnesota stage. He holds a BFA in Musical Theatre from Millikin University and was a participant of the Nautilus Music Theatre Composer-Librettist workshop.

ERIC SHARP  he/him

As an actor he has appeared onstage nationally and internationally at the Guthrie Theater, Ten Thousand Things, The Jungle Theater, Theatre de la Jeune Lune, Live Action Set, Atlanta’s Alliance Theatre, and the Toronto and Edinburgh Fringe Festivals. He played Mowgli in The Jungle Book at CTC, and the young Dalai Lama on multiple tours of TigerLion Arts’ The Buddha Prince. His one act play Strange Lands premiered at Theater 45°. A member of the Artistic Advisory Committee at Theater Mu, Eric wrote and starred in the world premiere of Middle Brother; appeared in Today is My Birthday, Hot Asian Doctor Husband, Charles Francis Chan, Jr..., Two Mile Hollow, Yellow Fever, Twelfth Night, FOB: The MN Chinese Restaurant Tour, Into the Woods, Ching Chong Chinaman, and Immigrant Journey Project, among many others. Eric recently directed the educational video series The Remix with Theater Mu. Look for him onstage this winter in the Guthrie’s A Christmas Carol and next summer in the Mu/Jungle Theater co-production of Lauren Yee’s Cambodian Rock Band. www.WorkSharp.org

THEATER 45°
(series co-producer)

Theater 45° uses the theatrical experience to deepen the many facets of being human. They intend to present stories that engage the spiritual side of the human person regardless of — but not ignoring — religious experience. These stories are rooted in questions and not answers. As a community of story-tellers and story-receivers, we strive to give an experience of collaboration, intersectionality and honoring the many voices that get pushed to the margins. We will present stories that are meant to nurture transformation and deepen how we navigate our encounters with those that we may consider to be others.

As one of the largest Asian American theater companies in the nation, Theater Mu produces great performances born of arts, equity, and justice. Founded in 1992, Mu tells stories from the heart of the Asian American experience, presenting a fusion of traditional and contemporary artistic influences, which range from classics to up-and-coming voices in our community. Theater Mu’s continuing goal to celebrate and empower the Asian American community through theater is achieved through mainstage productions, emerging artist support, and educational outreach programs. Theater Mu was named a Regional Cultural Treasure by the McKnight and Ford foundations through a national initiative which honors organizations that have made a significant impact on our cultural landscape over decades.

Theater Mu is a member of the Consortium of Asian American Theaters & Artists as well as a member of the Twin Cities Theatres of Color Coalition, proudly standing alongside New Native Theatre, Pangea World Theater, Penumbra Theatre, and Teatro Del Pueblo.

The Meaning of “Mu”

Mu (pronounced MOO) is the Korean pronunciation of the Chinese character for the shaman/artist/warrior who connects the heavens and the earth through the tree of life.
