THEATER MU’S 30TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON

AAPI GENERATIONS CONFERENCE
May 19-21 | Park Square Theatre
A national theater reunion ft. breakout sessions, play readings, and guests David Henry Hwang, Amy Hill, and Mu co-founder Rick Shiomi.
TICKETS ON SALE NOW!

THE KUNG FU ZOMBIES SAGA: SHAMAN WARRIOR & CANNIBALS
July 19-Aug 13 | The Luminary
A hip hop, apocalyptic world premiere by Mellon Foundation playwright-in-residence Saymoukda Duangphouxay Vongsay.

Learn more at THEATERMU.ORG
SHOW INFORMATION

SONG ORDER:

"One Day at a Time" ................................................................. Mai See
"Quest" .................................................................................... Quest
"She Holds the Key" ............................................................... Mai See
"Are You Fucking Kidding Me?" ................................................. Mai See
"Sometimes You Gotta Say No" ................................................ Mai See, Quest
"Santorini" ................................................................................ Shia
"Be the Boss of Your Life" ....................................................... Quest, Mai See
"Constipation" ........................................................................... Mai See, Company
"Lifeboat" ................................................................................... Shia
"Not Okay" .................................................................................. Company
"The Messenger" ......................................................................... Broc, Mai See
"We Hold the Key (Reprise)" .................................................... Shia, Mai See
"Is This the End?/One Day at a Time (Reprise)" ......................... Mai See, Quest

RUN TIME: One hour and 45 minutes, no intermission

CONTENT WARNING: Chronic and life-threatening disease, strong language.

FIND OUR QUIET SPACE: If you should need to exit the production at any point, there is a designated space upstairs (accessible by elevators or stairs) for you to rest and find resources. This space is intended for patrons who need to take a break from sensory or emotional stimuli.

COVID-19 POLICIES: Masks, preferably KN95s or N95s, are required at all Sunday performances (Apr 2, 9, 16). For the safety of our performers and audiences, Mu recommends guests wear masks while attending any show. For Theater Mu’s full COVID protocols, visit theatermu.org/covid.

SPECIAL THANKS

American Hi Tech Rentals, Audioquip, David Pisa, Jeremy Stoller, Jennifer Weir, Jungle Theater, KNOCK, inc., Magers & Quinn Booksellers, Meghan Gaffney, Midway Used & Rare Books, Monkey Wrench Productions, Old Log Theatre, Playwrights’ Center, Rebecca Noon, Rooted to Last, Stages Theatre Company, Stephen DiMenna, Wanderlust Productions

PERFORMANCE VENUE

Mixed Blood Theatre is a social justice organization that has used theater to disrupt injustice since 1976. The theater company is committed to catalyzing action and change through art, and its work is guided by deep community engagement and rooted in radical hospitality.

PLAYWRIGHTS’ CENTER  JEROME FOUNDATION

Again was developed with the support of Playwrights’ Center. Again was developed with the support of the Jerome Foundation.
AGAIN

book & additional lyrics by KATIE KA VANG music & lyrics by MELISSA LI directed by NANA DAKIN

CAST
in order of appearance
Mai See DEXIENG YANG*
Shia PAGNI XIONG*
Broc/Doc AARON KOMO*
Quest MELODY HER
Mai See/Quest (understudy), voiceover HAVY NGUYEN
Broc/Doc (understudy) MATT SWANSON
Shia (understudy) MICHELLE VANG

Musicians: BOB KELLY (piano/conductor), KYLE SIMONS BAKER (guitar Mar 29–Apr 12), ERI ISOMURA (drums), TEIANA NAKANO (cello), CHRIS STREED (guitar Apr 13–16), SHAWN WANG (bass)

CREATIVE & PRODUCTION TEAM

Orchestrator BRONWEN CHAN
Music Director DENISE PROSEK
Stage Manager HALEY WALSH*
Production Manager JAY CLAIRE
Scenic Designer ALICE ENDO
Costume Designer KHAMPHIAN VANG
Lighting Designer ERIK PAULSON
Sound Designer C ANDREW MAYER
Properties Designer KENJI SHOEMAKER
Choreographer SANDY AGUSTIN
Assistant Director SUNNY THAO
Assistant Music Director BOB KELLY
Assistant Stage Manager CHRISTIAN ERBEN
Asst. Stage Manager Swing/Sub MILES LATHAM
Developmental Dramaturg BEN KRYWOFSZ
Script Assistant CODY KOUR
Assistant Director ELISA MONEY
Music Assistant & Copyist GAEA DILL-D’ASCOLI
Technical Director RICHARD GRAHAM
Sound Engineer RAY STEVESON
Head Electrician KENNEDY JONES
COVID Safety Coordinator OLIVIA NYMAN
Run Crew OLIVIA SANDS
Wardrobe ABIGAIL CHAGOLLA

Accessibility Providers: ASL interpreters JENAE FARNHAM and ALYSSA HILL, supertitle operator JOHANNA LANDAYERDE, audio describer LAURIE PAPY HADLEY

Fabricators & Technicians: Carpenters BONNIE GRITTNER, JACOB “LANCE” KROHN, WHITNEY LEMING-SALISBURY, EMMA MURPHY; electricians SHANNON ELLIOT, JACK HINZ, KURT JUNG, ELLIE SIMONET; stitcher BECCA MICHELLE CLAYTON

*denotes member of the Actors’ Equity Association, the union of professional actors and stage managers in the United States.
Cover photo by Rich Ryan ft. Dexieng Yang and Melody Her.
WORLD PREMIERE CO-PRODUCED BY JUNGLE THEATER

5
BY JUCOBY JOHNSON
DIRECTED BY H. ADAM HARRIS
FEATURING ISABELLA DAWIS, AARON TODD DOUGLAS, ERIC HAGEN, JUCOBY JOHNSON, DANA LEE THOMPSON

A STORY OF FRIENDSHIP AND COMMUNITY TESTED BY MONEY AND RACE THAT RACES TOWARDS APOCALYPTIC ENDS

NOW THROUGH APRIL 16

An assassin, a spy, a playwright, and of course, Marie Antoinette!

MAR 29 – APR 16
THE REVOLUTIONISTS
By Lauren Gunderson
Directed by Shelli Place
TICKETS ON SALE NOW!
Thank you for joining us for Theater Mu’s 30th season—our Pearl Anniversary!

To mark the occasion, we are featuring stories by longtime and beloved Mu artists, including the musical you’re experiencing today: Again, with book and additional lyrics by Katie Ka Vang and music and lyrics by Melissa Li.

Again embodies the breadth and depth of Asian American work that is creating the new American canon. Yet Katie’s script tells the most personal and vulnerable of stories—one that gives voice to a community that’s the largest Asian American population in Minnesota, yet is often the most underrepresented. What’s beautiful about Again is that it allows its Hmong American women to live in the fullness of who they are.

At Mu, we believe universality can only be found through specificity. Katie uplifts this too, and she has sculpted a Hmong American story that honors the depth and complicated nature of her characters and speaks to the universality of their experience. Whether we’ve battled cancer ourselves or cared for a loved one, no matter what family we call our own, most of us can connect with Again’s humor and heartbreak.

One of our associate artists, Katie has been part of Mu for nearly half of its lifetime. She started as an actor in 2009, and then in 2011, we produced the world premiere of her first play, WTF. In the 12 years since, the world and Katie herself have gone through immense change, struggle, and transformation, and from that, Again came into being. We are honored and grateful to commission, develop, and produce Katie’s first musical, with two other artists we greatly admire, Melissa and director Nana Dakin, who are both making their Mu debuts.

As we look toward the next 30 years, it is this confluence of longtime Mu artists and those new to our space that defines our future. We’re proud that this production features three Hmong American women playing the three Hmong American roles, including two who are making their Mu debuts. Alice Endo came up through our production fellowship and assistantship program and is now our scenic designer, and early-career playwright Sunny Thao is joining us as assistant director. Finally, choreography is by Sandy Agustin, who has been part of Mu since its first New Eyes Festival and mainstage production in 1993.

It’s the multiple generations of artists who make Mu who we are. As we move through our Pearl Anniversary Season, our AAPI Generations Conference in May will be both a theater reunion of sorts and a view of the future. We will honor the elders who paved the way before us and made everything we do possible, and usher in the early-career artists who are carving the path ahead.

We invite you to join us. Ultimately, it is you we celebrate, our audiences and supporters. Without you, Theater Mu would not exist, and we look forward to creating and sharing 30 more years of theater together, starting with Again. Enjoy!
A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

What do we need to transform ourselves? How is change and transformation actually seeded on a personal and societal level?

Again gives us the opportunity to pay attention to one of the smallest, most everyday of change-makers: a conversation. And this seed of change is held in the smallest container it needs to grow, which is a relationship. In this story, the greatest change and overcoming of obstacles isn’t born from a heroic journey of actions, but from the words these characters say to one another. An accumulation of meaningful conversations leads to an accumulation of growth rooted in relationship. “Small is all,” writes adrienne maree brown. “How we are at the small scale is how we are at the large scale.” What moves me about Again is that it shows us how great transformation comes from conversations.

This large, universal message is also held in the specific experience of Hmong American women. Through the cultural specificity of these characters, we see the universality of struggling with sibling relationships, of being impacted by our heritage, and having the desire to tell our own stories. On a grimmer note, the specificity of Mai See’s and Quest’s cancer journeys also shows us the universal nature of being thrown off course by cancer, whether we are battling the disease ourselves or caring for loved ones in that process.

We need to value the power of our conversations, our relationships, and underrepresented voices. This is how we will grow, change, and transform. Katie Ka Vang, Melissa Li, and the entire team of Again are here to show us how to laugh—and cry—and sing—our way there.

NANA DAKIN
DIRECTOR

CAST

MELODY HER (QUEST)
Melody (she/her) is a Hmong/Laotian American artist and social justice activist, born and raised in Minnesota. She studies at St. Catherine University, majoring in political science and economics with a minor in criminal justice. When Melody’s not in school, she loves to spend time with her family and friends, travel, and appreciate the outdoors. Music and theater have always been a part of Melody’s life (credited to her musically gifted parents), and she hopes to use her love of art to strive toward social justice in her community. Again is Melody’s first experience within the Twin Cities’ theater community, and she’s beyond grateful that she gets to share it with the incredible company of Theater Mu.

AARON KOMO*
(BROC/DOC)
Aaron (he/him) is happy to return to the stage with his Theater Mu debut after a seven-year hiatus. Thank you Mu family, Nana, Katie, Melissa, Lily, and this company for the warm welcome. Off-Broadway: Tamar of the River. Regional: Disney’s Mulan (Tuacahn), Romeo & Juliet (MN Opera), The King and I (Olney Theatre). BM musical theater: NYU. Offstage, Aaron is associate director of client success at the Social Lights and one half of thekomos.com. | @aaronkomo

PAGNIA XIONG* (SHIA)
Pagnia (she/her) is an internationally recognized Hmong American music artist and creative producer. Using her voice, experiences, and personality, she has championed women's empowerment, mental health, and dreaming big for nearly two decades. At 16, Pagnia made her acting debut at a local children's theater in her hometown of Eau Claire, WI. Four years later, her passion for performing led to a record deal. Since 2006, she has performed globally for over 200,000 people and recorded three full-length albums. Her creative work has garnered over 40,000 followers and reached more than 1.4 million video views. Two decades later, she is excited to revive her passion for performance through the marriage of music and acting in her first Theater Mu production, Again.

DEXIENG “DAE” YANG* (MAI SEE)
Dexieng (she/her) is a Hmong American playwright, actor, and teaching artist located in the Twin Cities, MN, area. Dexieng (pronounced Day-Sing) graduated from Augsburg University ('21), majoring in theater with concentrations in playwriting, dramaturgy, and directing. She has worked with Theater Mu in The Korean Drama Addict’s Guide To Losing Your Virginity, The Last Firefly, and Man Of God. Her other works include Good Kids at the MN Fringe Festival, Neighbors at History Theatre, Shul at 6 Points Theater, Mercutio Loves Romeo Loves Juliet Loves at the William Inge Festival, Sounds Inside at Red Eye Theater, and The Humans at Park Square Theatre. She is currently a company member of Breaking Ice with Pillsbury House Theatre.

HAVY NGUYEN (MAI SEE/QUEST UNDERSTUDY)
Havy (she/her) is so excited to be working with Theater Mu. She has just moved to the Twin Cities from Richmond, VA, where she got her BFA from the Virginia Commonwealth University. Her recent credits include Ali in Mamma Mia!, Adonia in Atlantis: A New Musical, and Gabrielle in Rodgers and Hammerstein’s Cinderella, all at Virginia Repertory Theatre. Other credits include #25 in The Wolves (Cadence Theatre Company), Phantom in The Rocky Horror Picture Show (Richmond Triangle Players), and Little Red Riding Hood in Into the Woods. She’d like to thank her family and Jordan for always loving and supporting her.

MATT SWANSON
(BROC/DOC UNDERSTUDY)
Matt (he/him) is thrilled to be making his debut with Theater Mu. He has previously appeared locally in Mamma Mia!, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang, My Fair Lady, and Man of La Mancha. Offstage, he enjoys golf, darts, and is an unapologetic karaoke addict.

MICHELLE VANG
(SHIA UNDERSTUDY)
Michelle (she/her) is a Hmong American actress, singer, content creator, and writer. She graduated from the University of Minnesota Duluth with a BA in theatre. She has worked on Time’s Up, an adaptation of Hrotsvitha’s Paphnutius (ensemble), and toured Kalamazoo, MI, for the Mostly Medieval Theatre Festival. She has written and directed Ob Lub Suab, Ib Haiv Neeg (Different Voice, Same People), a jukebox musical for Hmong Living In Unity and Balance (HLUB). Aside from theatre, she enjoys creating musical content for TikTok and Instagram. She is very excited to be a part of Again at Theater Mu.

KATIE KA VANG
(BOOK & ADD’L LYRICS)
Katie (she/her) is a Hmong American playwright and theater artist. Her plays include WTF, Hmong Bollywood, Fast FWD Motions, Final Round, Spirit Trust, and Fertile Grounds. Her work has been developed and presented at Pangea World Theater, Pillsbury House Theatre, Theater Mu, Leviantan Lab, Bushwick Starr, Brown University, the Royal Court Theatre, the Walker Art Center, Out North Art House, and more. She has received fellowships and grants from the Playwrights’ Center, Jerome Foundation, NET, MAP, Knight Foundation, NPN, MRAC, MSAB, and more. She was a member of East West Players 2021/22 playwrights group. She is currently the 22/23 McKnight Fellow at the Playwrights’ Center and

CREATIVE & PRODUCTION
At Augsburg University, we believe in the power of first-hand experience

FOR LEARNING, FOR LIVING, FOR FINDING PURPOSE.

Learn more at augsburg.edu.
MELISSA LI (MUSIC & LYRICS)
Melissa Li (she/her) is a composer, lyricist, performer, and writer based in NYC and Montreal. She is a recipient of the 2023 ASCAP Harold Adamson Lyric Award, 2021 Kleban Prize, 2007 Jonathan Larson Award, and was previously a Dramatists Guild Foundation fellow, a Lincoln Center Theater writer-in-residence, and a MacDowell fellow. Works include Interstate (NAMT, NYMF Outstanding Lyrics), MISS STEP, Cancelled (Keen Company), Surviving the Nian (the Theater Offensive, 2007 IRNE winner, best new play). Her works have been presented by 5th Avenue Theatre, Playwrights Horizons, MCC, Musical Theater Factory, Oregon Shakespeare Festival, Signature Theatre, San Francisco Gay Men’s Chorus, and more. In addition to working in theater, Melissa is currently writing and developing projects for film and television.

NANA DAKIN (DIRECTOR)
Nana (she/her) is a queer Thai American director of new work, classics, and devised performance based in NYC. Her work pursues social equity by examining the way culture is constructed and unsettling dormant biases. Recent credits include Eurydice (American Shakespeare Center), Mammelephant (Superhero Clubhouse/122CC), Sorry/Not Sorry (Ars Nova ANT Fest), Love Letter to a Seed (Clubbed Thumb Winterworks), White Pearl (Royal Court Theatre), Richard III (Lenfest Center for the Arts). In NYC, Nana has developed new work with Atlantic Theater Company, the Civilians, New York Theatre Workshop, the Playwrights Realm, and more. Nana is in the 2022/23 writer-director lab at Soho Rep and is the board president of the Thai Theatre Foundation. MFA theatre directing: Columbia University. | nanadakin.com

SANDY AGUSTIN (CHOREOGRAPHER)
Sandy (she/her) has a long relationship with Mu, beginning with Mask Dance, the first show Mu produced 30 years ago, and being part of its artistic core. She is proud and honored to be part of Katie Ka Vang’s work and to be collaborating with the Again team. Sandy has her own business called Cre8tive Navigators and uses her 35-plus years in arts and nonprofits to guide people as they find “true North,” whether team building, navigating nonprofit board governance, or helping individuals through terminal illness and death. She is an advocate of all animals as well as a board member of Maji Ya Chai Land Sanctuary, a BIPOC-centered retreat space near Two Harbors, and Speaking Out Collective. Her most recent loves: her Australian cattle dog, Raydar, and the Argentine tango.

KYLE SIMONS BAKER (GUITAR)
Kyle (he/him) is thrilled to make his Theater Mu debut with this production of Again. Kyle is a freelance guitarist and educator in and around the Twin Cities. He has played in productions at Old Log Theatre, Chanhassen Dinner Theatres, Jungle Theater, History Theatre, Lyric Arts, and Park Square Theatre. Additionally, he maintains a private teaching studio. Kyle studied guitar performance at Denison University and holds a master’s degree from McNally Smith College of Music.

BRONWEN CHAN (ORCHESTRATOR)
Bronwen (she/her) is buzzed to be back with the Twin Cities theater community! She was last here for Interstate at Mixed Blood (music assistant/key 2) and is gladly making her orchestration debut with Mu. Her vocal arrangements for “Who Am I” by Kit Yan and Melissa Li can be heard on Songs of the Phoenix, recorded by the San Francisco Gay Men’s Chorus. She is also a music assistant for theater and film. Credits include MISS STEP (Playwrights Horizon), Annie Live! (NBC), Spirit-ed (Apple TV), and upcoming releases of Snow White (Disney) and Wicked (NBCUniversal).

JAY CLAIRE (PRODUCTION MANAGER)
Jay (they/them) is a Twin Cities-based carpenter, electrician, and crew person. They are thrilled to be working with Theater Mu this season! Prior to their time with Theater Mu, they worked as production manager for Mixed Blood Theatre, where their production credits included Animate, imagine a u.s. without racism, and a three-stop national tour of The Most Beautiful Home… Maybe. Jay has made theater in zoos, ware-
Order online @ davannis.com

20 Restaurant Locations including Riverside (25TH & RIVERSIDE)

10% OFF YOUR ORDER
Code: RS23
EXPIRES 05-31-23
Not valid with other coupons or discounts. Only one coupon per person, per order, per day.

THECEDAR
TICKETS AT THECEDAR.ORG | 416 CEDAR AVE S, MINNEAPOLIS, MN, 55454

FRI APRIL 7  Doors: 7pm | Show: 8pm
BLACK BELT EAGLE SCOUT with Claire Glass & Adobo

FRI MAY 12  Doors: 7pm | Show: 8pm
Infected Celebration: MAYDA with special guest
Join us to celebrate MAYDA's new release: 'Infected.' It's symbolic of the current times. But on this night, LOVE is the focus.
houses, community gardens, concert halls, and public parks, including two summer tours with the San Francisco Mime Troupe. When they are not working with Theater Mu, Jay can be found in the scene shop at the University of Minnesota. They live in Saint Paul with three good pals and their wonderful partner.

GAEA DILL-D’ASCOLI (TECHNICAL DIRECTOR)
Gaea (she/her) is a freelance theater and teaching artist in the Twin Cities. She has been a technical director, stage manager, production manager, carpenter, puppeteer, and run crew all around the cities. This is her first show with Theater Mu. In addition to theatrical arts, Gaea has hung several photography shows and has published creative nonfiction and fiction writing pieces. She holds a master’s degree in arts and cultural management from St. Mary’s University and is working on a second master’s degree in science writing from Johns Hopkins University. | gaeadd.com

ALICE ENDO (SCENIC DESIGNER)
Alice (she/her) is an emerging theater artist of many disciplines. She has designed for groups such as Threads Dance Project, Exposed Brick Theatre, and Blue Water Theater Company. This is her fourth collaboration with Theater Mu, and her first as a lead designer. She is grateful to the support of Theater Mu’s staff and the wonderful production team, and hopes you enjoy Again.

CHRISTIAN ERBEN (ASST. STAGE MANAGER)
Christian (she/her) is a contract stage manager based in the Twin Cities. Originally from Austin, TX, she moved to Minnesota last fall and is so excited to be working with Theater Mu! She recently worked on Beauty & the Beast through the Broadway @ the Ordway series at the Ordway Center for the Performing Arts in Saint Paul, where she served as a company management assistant and the COVID safety manager. She recently returned to Austin, TX, to be the stage manager for The Last Five Years at TexARTS Association, where she has also worked on productions of The Full Monty (stage manager) and Annie (assistant stage manager). Love to Lydia, and enjoy the show!

RICHARD GRAHAM (SOUND ENGINEER)
Richard (he/him) is a freelance sound designer and engineer and the sound supervisor at Park Square Theatre. He is excited to rejoin the Mu crew after Man of God, peerless, and Hot Asian Doctor Husband. Recent: MN Opera: Cold Air Rises (mix engineer); Walking Shadow: Feast (sound designer); Ethnic Dance Theatre: Reflections on the Danube (mix engineer); Park Square: The Snowy Day, Fire in the New World, The Humans (all as supervisor), Rocky Horror (assistant lighting designer); Artistry: Shrek (mix engineer); Off-Leash Area: Mulier Dierum (sound supervisor); Mixed Blood: Interstate (A2). Richard is a member of the Theatrical Sound Designers and Composers Association. | richardgraham.net

ERI ISOMURA (DRUMS)
Eri (she/her) is a freelance percussionist and a co-founder of 10th Wave Chamber Music Collective, a Twin Cities–based, Asian American-led ensemble performing engaging classical music by today’s local or underrepresented composers. She is also a member of Heartland Marimba Ensemble. She has recorded for the Minnesota Opera, Jeremy Messersmith, Aby Wolf, and Asuka Kakitani. She has released a self-produced album, Musical Moments for Cello and Marimba. She is percussion faculty at St. Olaf College and Yinghua Academy and is president of the Percussive Arts Society Minnesota Chapter. She holds performance degrees from St. Olaf College (BM) and the Boston Conservatory (MM). She is a Koide cymbals artist. | eriisomura.com, 10thwave.org

BOB KELLY (ASST. MUSIC DIRECTOR, PIANO/CONDUCTOR)
Bob is a Minneapolis–based pianist, music director, and composer. Bob is thrilled to be back at Theater Mu, having recently music directed the Lunar New Year Cabaret. Other music directing credits include West Side Story (assistant music director, Sioux City Symphony Orchestra); Finding Home, the songs of Ricky Ian Gordon (music director/orchestrator, NYU Steinhardt); Broadway’s Amazing Grace (keys sub/music assistant); Acting Manitou Theater Camp (music director/teaching artist); and Celebrity Cruises (orchestra keys player/solo pia-
MOZART'S

DON GIOVANNE

MAY 6–21
So hot, he'll burn

ON SALE NOW

mнопера.org
612-333-6669

THEATRE IN THE ROUND

TRUE WEST
by Sam Shepard

April 21–May 14
www.theatreintheround.org
nist). Bob is a member of the Theatre Now New York Musical Writers Lab, and his solo EP Open Road was released in 2021. He is a graduate of St. Olaf College and the NYU Graduate Musical Theatre Writing Program. | bobkelly-music.com

CODY KOUR (SCRIPT ASST.)

Cody (he/him) is a Khmer American writer, teacher, and theatre artist whose main interests lie in lyric poetry, late night drives, and keeping plants alive. He has always enjoyed theatre and the performing arts, and is grateful to have worked on Cambodian Rock Band with Theater Mu/Jungle Theater and Vietgone at the Guthrie Theater as a dramaturgy fellow and rap consultant assistant, respectively. He has also been known to jump onto the improv stage once every blue moon. In the future, Cody hopes to continue to collaborate on projects as a dramaturg, performer, or assistant because he loves being able to work with so many talented artists and is always learning from them.

BEN KRYWOSZ (DEV. DRAMATURG)

Ben (he/him) is the co-founder of Nautilus Music-Theater, where he directs fully staged productions, hosts Rough Cuts (a monthly works-in-progress series), leads the Wesley Balk Opera/Music-Theater Institute, and facilitates Composer-Librettist Studios around the country. His productions include local and world premieres of Twisted Apples, Ordinary Days, The View from Here, Joan of Arc, John and Jen, Sister Stories, Orpheus and Euridice, and I Am Anne Frank, as well as innovative stagings of Carousel, Man of La Mancha, Into the Woods, and The Fantasticks. Ben also serves as a lecturer, group facilitator, community organizer, and administrative consultant, and teaches classes in collaboration. His most recent production, Moonlit Walk Home, premiered at Nautilus last spring.

MILES LATHAM (ASM SWING/SUB)

Miles (he/him) is a junior at Macalester College double majoring in theater and creative writing. He’s also a stage manager, designer, and occasional camp counselor. Miles has previously worked in theater at Macalester and in New York and Iowa. Again is his first show with Theater Mu! Many thanks to the cast, crew, and production team! Upcoming productions include costume design for North as part of Macalester’s Spring Dance Concert.

C ANDREW MAYER (SOUND DESIGNER)

C Andrew (he/him) has worked with many fine theater companies in the Twin Cities area, most recently including the Jungle, Latté Da, History Theatre, Pillsbury House, Illusion, and Six Points, and nationally including Lyric Opera of Kansas City, Colorado Opera in Denver, Everyman in Baltimore, and ACT in San Francisco. Previously at Mu, he designed Today Is My Birthday, Asiamnesia, Circle Around the Island, and Happy Valley. He was a McKnight theatre artist fellow and won an Audelco Award for his design for Carlyle Brown’s Pure Confidence at 59E59, NYC. In summer, he serves as the producing director of the Acadia Repertory Theatre on Mount Desert Island in Maine.

ELISA MONEY (MUSIC ASST. & COPYIST)

Elisa (they/she/he) is a musical Swiss army knife from Vancouver, Canada. They have contributed their talents to productions at the 5th Avenue Theatre, Oregon Shakespeare Festival, Village Theatre, the Arsht Center, Seattle Repertory Theatre, ACT (Seattle), 54 Below, and others across the US and Canada. They have produced several productions with Michael Brannon Wiles and are published alongside Albert Evans, David Armstrong, and Jason DeBord. Recently, they had the honor of music directing MISS STEP (Village Theatre) and music directed, arranged, orchestrated, and performed in Revenge Song (Oregon Shakespeare Festival). Their recorded music is available on all streaming platforms: Roaring, The Seed EP, and Canadia, PA. Up next: Lydia & the Troll at Seattle Repertory Theatre. | elisamoney.com, @elisamoneymusic

TEIANA NAKANO (CELLO)

Teiana (she/her) is incredibly excited to be a part of Theater Mu’s production of Again. She has been playing the cello for over 20 years and has been a member of the Portland Youth Philharmonic and the St. Olaf Orchestra. Teiana works as an admin person at a nonprofit, and is also the vocalist in a local band called the Umamies.
ERIK PAULSON
(LIGHTING DESIGNER)
Erik (he/him) is happy to join Theater Mu for the first time to create this brand new musical. As resident scenic and lighting designer at Old Log Theatre, Erik has enjoyed inventing the visual worlds of plays over the past decade. Erik has designed regionally and locally including Palm Beach Opera, Repertory Theatre of St. Louis, Great River Shakespeare Festival, Madison Opera, History Theatre, Park Square Theatre, and Nautilus Music-Theater. He is proud to be a founding member of the Great River Shakespeare Festival in Winona. Erik shares his home in Minneapolis with his lovely wife and son. See his work from the last 25 years at erikepaulson.com.

DENISE PROSEK
(MUSIC DIRECTOR)
Denise (she/her) has worked extensively as a music director, pianist, composer, orchestrator, and arranger for the past 30 years. As resident music director and co-founder of Theater Latté Da, she has music directed over 50 mainstage productions, including Chicago, Sweeney Todd, Ragtime, Twelve Angry Men, and Five Points. She was music director for Theater Mu’s Into The Woods and Little Shop Of Horrors, and additionally has directed/conducted for Guthrie, Children’s Theatre Company, Park Square, and Ordway, among others. Denise holds a bachelor of music from St. Olaf College. She was named outstanding musical director (2006, 2008) by the Star Tribune, theater artist of the year (2012) from Lavender, and was honored to be a 2013/14 Playwrights’ Center/McKnight theater artist fellow.

KENJI SHOEMAKER
(PROPERTIES DESIGNER)
Kenji (he/they) is a Minneapolis-based props person and stage manager. This is Kenji’s fourth production with Mu, having previously worked on Man of God, peerless, and Fast Company. Other recent collaborations include: Bina’s Six Apples (Children’s Theatre Company), The Moors (American Players Theatre), Thunder Knocking on the Door (Ten Thousand Things), What to Send Up When It Goes Down (Pillsbury House Theatre), Tuck Everlasting (Stages Theatre Company), and The Unplugging (New Native Theatre).

SUNNY THAO
(ASST. DIRECTOR)
Sunny (she/her) is excited to return to Theater Mu as Again’s assistant director. Her previous theater experiences are with Mu (Man of God assistant stage manager, 2022 Emerging Playwrights’ Circle cohort member) and SEA Echoes Through River (lead artist). She has also written and performed for Pangea World Theater’s Lake Story Circles and East Side Freedom Library. As an artist, she is drawn to works exploring cultural identities and familial history, and elevating Southeast Asian stories. In her free time, she co-hosts a podcast, Beyond Friends, and she wants to thank her family and friends for their support. Enjoy the show!

KHAMPHIAN VANG
(COSTUME DESIGNER)
Khamphian (she/her) is a Twin Cities-based freelance designer-artist with a background in fashion and costume design. Again is her fourth show with Theater Mu. Previous credits with Theater Mu include peerless, Man of God, and Cambodian Rock Band. She has worked with several theater companies within the Twin Cities area, and most recently with Minnesota Opera on The Song Poet. Khamphian is grateful to have worked on Again with this creative and production team to give voice to the stories that reflect the Minnesota community.

HALEY WALSH*
(STAGE MANAGER)
Haley (she/her) is a freelance AEA stage manager based in the Twin Cities. She has worked with Illusion Theater, MN Dance Theatre, Collide Theatrical Dance Company, History Theatre, Mixed Blood Theatre, Theater Mu, Pillsbury House Theatre, and Minnesota Jewish Theatre (now Six Points), among others. When she’s not stage managing, you can find her working as an event coordinator. This is her second show with Theater Mu.

SHAWN WANG
(BASS)
Shawn (he/him) is an aspiring jazz bassist from Reno, NV, where he graduated from the University of Nevada, Reno. A recent transplant to the Twin Cities, Shawn has ingrained himself into the incredible music scene of the Twin Cities, getting the opportunity to play with many jazz mainstays in the area. Shawn is very excited to be working with Theater Mu on Again and grateful for Theater Mu’s mission of promoting Asian American stories through the arts.

THANK YOU, DONORS!

Because of you, we are able to provide Pay As You Are ticketing, youth outreach programs, production mentorships, and more.

View the complete list of our season donors by scanning our QR code, and thank you to everyone who supports Theater Mu!

MU EXPLORATIONS
Dive into theater this July with camps on acting, musical theater, and more for 3rd-12th graders!
THEATERMU.ORG/MU-EXPLORATIONS
Pay As You Are | Saint Paul location

SPIRITED
a documentary by Joua Lee Grande
See a free, in-progress screening + Q&A
Apr 15, 4:30 p.m., at Mixed Blood
The first public reading of Again was to a packed house that helped constitute one of Mu’s most attended New Eyes play reading festivals ever. Katie Ka Vang and Melissa Li had worked with director Nana Dakin and the workshop cast for a week, and on Apr 9, 2022, the audience fell under the spell woven by four actors, a piano, and a rich, candid story that so many people saw aspects of themselves in—despite the fact that the musical was still in development.

One audience member said, “This was the first time I’ve ever attended a performance where I could personally relate to the characters and work, both personally and culturally. I felt validated and affirmed in my experience as a Hmong woman.” Another wrote, “Again is a piece I feel like I’m gonna say, ‘I was in the room when... ’ Those artists are crafting a gift for the world, and we are so lucky to see its first tender offering.”

Now, almost a year later, we chatted with Vang and Li about what inspired Again, how the story came together, and which songs were the most fun to write.

From the beginning, Again was a Mu commission (with help from the Jerome Fellowship). Why Mu?

KKV: I think you should ask Mu, “Why me (us)?” haha. Mu has always been one of my artistic homes, so it feels natural for me to work with Mu.

ML: Although it’s my first time working with Theater Mu, they have been really supportive every step of the process. For me, I was excited to work with a talented playwright such as Katie and debut this show in a vibrant theater city here in Minneapolis/Saint Paul.

Mai See is a memoirist, Quest is a filmmaker, and then, of course, Again is a musical. Was it purposeful to layer so many storytelling mediums?

KKV: Definitely not purposeful at first, but once we found them (or they found us) we leaned into it. Characters start to tell you who and what they want to be, same with the story. Having said that, writing for me often stems from characters first—like the first images I’ll have are of people—and then I’ll put them together, and then I’ll watch the conversations they have. It’s part spirit, part corporeal, lots of drama-turgy, and it sort of teeters between those throughout the process.

Katie, you’ve mentioned that it was important to tell a cancer story from a Hmong American perspective. Could you tell me more about this, and how it played into the book and music?

KKV: That was the only thing I knew about this piece—that one of the characters had to be Hmong and touched by a cancer experience because I’m Hmong and representation matters. I just felt like why not? Why not Hmong and cancer? I don’t personally think it’s a show about cancer; I think it’s about breaking barriers to realize and find the things one needs in life to feel whole.

Could you both talk about what it was like telling a story (at least partially) based in Katie’s personal experiences?

KKV: For me it was cathartic, and sometimes very hard, but the music element made it much easier and funner and less serious. I think I really fell into the trope of a tortured writer, and working with Melissa and this musical gave me a new perspective on theater making and a new kind of magical tool I never gave myself permission to access until now.

ML: What I love about Again is the fact that it’s not depressing, even though it’s about cancer. It’s very much in Katie’s voice, and she’s a funny, joyful, irreverent, edgy person. Her characters are the same way, so I really tried to reflect her vibe in the music and lyrics.

Again weaves together reality, memory, and dreams. Could you tell me more about this style and how it came to be? Or did it just happen organically?

KKV: Definitely more organic. I almost never know what the structure will be until much later in the process. And the dream realm was actually something our director Nana Dakin lifted up, and when she mentioned it, it just opened a whole other door and that was exciting.

What has been the most fun song to write together? The most challenging? Why?

ML: The best songs are the ones where we work closely together, like “Be the Boss of Your Life” and “Lifeboat.” Typically, Katie will present to me a clear idea of a scene that we’d both agreed should be a song. A lot of times, Katie will have even written a full scene with dialogue and really specific concepts. From there, I’ll write the music and initial lyrics, and we’ll tweak the lyrics together.

“Constipation” and “Santorini” are especially fun because they’re sort of these humorous stand-alone songs that inject moments of levity into the show, but they also tie in to the larger themes of what the characters struggle with.

As Again has evolved, has there been anything that has surprised you about its story or the process of creating it?

ML: Everything has surprised me because the show has changed SO much since we first started working on it in 2020 (it was originally a two-hander)! So the story revealed itself over time only once we started writing—I’d never worked like that before, and it was scary, exhilarating, and at the end of the day, magical.

KKV: I’m always surprised, mostly because I almost NEVER know where I’m going as I write—which in the beginning is a good thing. I’m very much an intuitive writer, which is great in many ways, and also makes it more challenging to narrow down what’s at the heart of the writing. So Melissa has been very patient with me.

If you were to describe this whole creative partnership in three words, what would they be?

KKV: Arduous mystic lake.

ML: Discovery, challenge, joy.
Check out the lobby for our paj ntaub (Hmong textiles) display, shop with Hmong artists and makers, and visit our resource table, which includes information about local cultural and wellness organizations as well as a copy of Mu’s audience resource guide to Again (also available online).

Stop by bookstore Magers & Quinn to get Staring Down the Tiger: Stories of Hmong American Women, an anthology of true stories by women including locals Kao Kalia Yang and Gaosong V. Heu.

Take home Again with new Mu Merch created by Connie Xiong at KNOCK, inc., or by entering our $5 raffle in the lobby for an autographed music or script page.

Come back on Apr 15 for a free screening and Q&A for the in-progress documentary Spirited, which follows filmmaker Joua Lee Grande’s journey as she navigates news that she may become a spiritual healer.

For more information, go to bit.ly/MuAgain and scroll down to the Explore More section.

Exposed Brick Theatre Presents

Muyehpen
by Ehkhudah Zar
directed by Eliza Rasheed

Based on a folktale that has been passed down for generations by the Karen people of Burma, Muyehpen captures the story of a woman with supernatural powers who sacrificed for her people. This is her narrative of resilience and resistance.

May 19th - 27th, 2023
Mounds Theater, St Paul
2022/23 SEASON SPONSORS

This activity is made possible by the voters of Minnesota through a Minnesota State Arts Board Operating Support grant, thanks to a legislative appropriation from the arts and cultural fund.

This organization is supported in part by the National Endowment for the Arts. To find out more about how NEA grants impact individuals and communities, visit arts.gov.

MU CHAMPIONS CIRCLE

THEATER MU STAFF

LILY TUNG CRYSTAL
Artistic Director

ANH THU T. PHAM
Managing Director

WESLEY MOURI
Development Director

LIANNA MCLERNON
Marketing & Communications Director

MORGEN CHANG
Programs Manager

JANE PEÑA
Office Manager & Literary Associate

SAYMOUKDA DUANGPHOUXAY VONGSAY
Andrew W. Mellon Foundation
Playwright-in-Residence

ISABEL LEE RODEN
Marketing & Programs Intern

THEATER MU BOARD

JON F. JEE, board chair
JACEY CHOI
ELIZABETH HANG
RUTHIE JOHNSON
CURTIS KLOTZ
GLORIA KUMAGAI
KATIE HAE LEO
GABRIELLE RYAN
NONOKO SATO
LILY TUNG CRYSTAL, ex-officio
ANH THU PHAM, ex-officio