JOB POSTING
McMaster Campus Ministries Council

Position: Interim Ecumenical Chaplain

The McMaster Campus Ministries Council (MCMC) is seeking an interim Ecumenical Chaplain for McMaster University, Hamilton Ontario. This is a half-time position, 20-25 hours/week, with variable length between 8-12 months, as negotiated, to start mid-late August, 2022. Compensation will be guided by the Anglican, Presbyterian or United Church pay-scales, and commensurate with experience.

Our interim Ecumenical Chaplain shall be in good standing in a mainline Christian denomination; have a minimum of three years ministerial experience and one unit of Clinical Pastoral Education at an advanced level or the equivalent; M. Div. or its equivalent; commitment to ecumenical activity; and openness to interfaith dialogue and co-operation.

The Ecumenical Chaplain shall be a consistent presence on campus with a responsibility to build relationships and minister to individuals and to the particular needs of a university community. In addition, the Ecumenical Chaplain shall have the responsibility for furthering the purpose of the McMaster Campus Ministries Council as articulated in the Constitution, available on our website (https://mcmasterchaplaincy.org/about-ecumenical).

The Ecumenical Chaplain is expected to promote the Ecumenical Chaplaincy and take the lead in writing grant proposals. Campus communications involve all forms of social media and the Ecumenical Chaplain must have strong computer and social media skills. Networking on campus and within the broader ecumenical faith community is also a key component of this position. The Ecumenical Chaplain needs to be comfortable with both in-person and virtual online ministry.

In keeping with McMaster University's strong commitment to employment equity within its community, McMaster Campus Ministries Council encourages applications from all qualified candidates. The full Position Description is available on the Chaplaincy Centre webpage (https://mcmasterchaplaincy.org/about-ecumenical).

Please ensure that you provide the following information in your application:

- current CV
- letter of application (maximum 2 pages) describing why you think you are suited to this position
- the names and contact information for three references

We will notify you to confirm that we have received your application but regret that we cannot provide information on the status of applications while the process is underway. All applicants will be informed when an appointment/decision has been made.

Applications for this vacancy will be received until 4:00 pm on July 12th, 2022.

Please submit applications to: MCMC c/o Eileen Schuller at: schuller@mcmaster.ca