KAATSBAAN CULTURAL PARK ANNOUNCES
SUMMER FESTIVAL 2021
AUGUST 28-29, SEPTEMBER 4-5 & 11-12, 2021 (Saturdays & Sundays)

Featuring three new classical dance commissions from Gemma Bond, Claire Davison & Lauren Lovette. Premiere screening of In Balanchine’s Classroom, in partnership with the Woodstock Film Festival. Inaugural “Playing Field Dinner” with a Peruvian pachamanca, curated by Jeff Gordinier.

August 24, 2021 - Tivoli, NY - Kaatsbaan Cultural Park will present a Summer Festival over three consecutive weekends, beginning August 28 and running through September 12, 2021 taking place both outdoors across its 153-acres in the Hudson Valley as well as in its indoor Theater. The multi-disciplinary festival will feature three new classical dance works with live music; a free weekend of western swing music, art, and picnicking; a film screening in partnership with the Woodstock Film Festival; and an inaugural outdoor end of summer dinner celebration.

“Following Kaatsbaan’s inaugural Spring Festival, which focused largely on New York dance, music, and culinary icons, Kaatsbaan is pleased to announce its Summer Festival 2021, featuring and supporting the next generation of creators and artists, bridging them with the rich history that preceded them, as well as focusing significantly on our community during this time of renewal as we come together once again.” said Sonja Kostich, Chief Executive & Artistic Officer.

“Kaatsbaan has always been a haven for artists, and this was never more evident than during these last sixteen months. We felt it was our responsibility to find a way to provide safe work spaces and performance opportunities for artists throughout the pandemic. The Summer Festival 2021 is building off the success of our past two Festivals, which supported over 300 New York City artists and allowed us to welcome more than 3,500 audience members to Kaatsbaan.” said Stella Abrera, Artistic Director.

Highlights of Summer Festival 2021 include:

August 28 and 29, 2021
6:00pm – 7:30pm

• The premiere of three Kaatsbaan commissioned classical dance works
Choreographer Claire Davison (American Ballet Theatre, Corps de Ballet), brings a site-specific physical comedy piece to Kaatsbaan, with elements of clowning, dance, slapstick, juggling and aerial dance to live music. Performing artists include Kyle Driggs, Andrea Murillo, Jeff Seal, and Tyler West. The Ávila Ensemble, with Ana Aparicio, Laura Pérez, Juan Diego Mora, and Elizabeth Liotta, students from Bard Conservatory, will accompany with Venezuelan folk music and music from classical repertoire.

Choreographer Gemma Bond (former dancer from Royal Ballet and American Ballet Theatre, current Artist-in-Residence at CoLab Dance), brings a new creation to Kaatsbaan’s outdoor Mountain Stage, with dancers from American Ballet Theatre, including Devon Teuscher, Cory Stearns, Tyler Maloney, Chloe Misseldine, Jose Sebastian, and Ingrid Thoms. Renowned concert pianist, Cecile Licad, will play excerpts from Rachmaninoff’s virtuosic 13 Preludes in an exciting collaboration with these dancers. Costume design by Harriet Jung.

Choreographer Lauren Lovette (New York City Ballet, Principal Dancer), brings a new pas de deux to Kaatsbaan’s outdoor Mountain Stage, with ABT dancer Zimmi Coker and Carlos Gonzalez with The Balourdet String Quartet.

A solo concert with Steinway Artist Cecile Licad will open the Mountain Stage portion of the evening. The piano has been provided by Steinway & Sons – the Artistic Choice of Kaatsbaan Summer Festival.
