

Prehospital Emergency Airway Course

Instructor:
Missy Carter, PM

Dates: April 28 or April 29, 2022

Registration: www.nwrems.org

Location: Chimacum Fire Station 11

Cost: $25* *Attendees limited to NW
Region Paramedics, 6 per county, per day*

Coffee, Water, lunch and snacks provided each day

Pediatric Airway

The pediatric PEAC builds on the initial PEAC course.

- This 4-hour course covers comprehensive pediatric airway management.
- Students will learn the following for pediatric airways:
 - Physiologic and anatomic differences
 - The difficult pediatric airway
 - Pediatric SGA
 - Pediatric video laryngoscopy
 - Needle cricothyrotomy
 - Foreign body airway obstruction

Sponsored by:

Special Populations

The special populations PEAC builds on the initial PEAC course.

- This 4-hour course covers airway management in special populations including: trauma, obese, geriatrics, pregnancy, reactive airway and more.
- Students will learn techniques for the following patient populations:
 - Trauma
 - Reactive airway
 - Distorted anatomy
 - Status seizure
 - The pregnant patient
 - Geriatrics
 - The morbidly obese
 - Foreign body removal
 - Awake intubation skills

