NEWS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact
Ray Coleman, Director of Communications
rcoleman@msva.ms.gov
601-576-4847

Executive Director Pickering named Vice-President of NASDVA – Southeastern Region

JACKSON – Mississippi Veterans Affairs (MSVA) Executive Director Stacey Pickering has been named the Vice-President of the National Association of State Directors of Veterans Affairs – Southeast Region (NASDVA).

Director Pickering will represent the following 11 states and territories – Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. This leadership position allows Pickering to advocate for veterans and address their needs concerning national policies and programs.

“I am honored to represent Mississippi and the entire southeastern region in my role as Vice-President,” said Director Pickering. “It is my goal to ensure that our Veterans and their families, not just in Mississippi, get the superior service, care, and assistance they deserve.”

NASDVA dates back to 1946, coming into existence in the aftermath of World War II. The Association is comprised of State Directors and Commissioners of Veterans Affairs from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, American Samoa, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

###