About the Summit

The Compassionate Leadership Summit is a two-day event focused on how we might bring compassion and mindfulness more effectively into our organizations and communities.

The Vision: Compassion is a vital component to healthy and sustainable workplaces and communities. The vision that drives the Summit is a world in which awareness, justice, inclusivity and compassion guide our actions as a society, and emerge as norms of human behavior.

Audience: Designed for leaders in our community -- from corporations, non-profits, government, and academia -- who are committed to developing cultures of compassion, consciousness and civility. The intention is to bring together both those already engaged in this work, and those who want to learn how to begin.

Take-aways: The Summit will provide attendees with three take-aways:

1) practical tools and best practices to implement in their workplaces and personal lives;
2) exposure to methods, approaches and experts to pursue post-Summit;
3) connections with other learners for collaborative and supportive working relationships.

To purchase a ticket and reserve a place, visit CompassionateLeadershipSummit.com.

NOV 8 - 9, 2019
The Hub | University of Washington

“Compassion is a marvel of human nature, a precious inner resource, the foundation of our well-being and the harmony of our societies.”
— DALAI LAMA
About the Summit

The Compassionate Leadership Summit is a two-day event focused on how we might bring compassion and mindfulness more effectively into our organizations and communities.

Presenters: Presenters at this year’s Summit are visionary leaders, teachers, cultural trailblazers and creators, who represent diverse applications of compassion and mindfulness, towards creating a more healthy and sustainable society. The Summit is designed to share tools, methods and traditions, to create enriching connections amongst participants, and to inspire a strong sense of being part of a movement that has real momentum in changing our culture for the benefit of all. Presenters for the 2019 Summit will be announced in August.

Design: Interactive, learning sessions will predominate, both in plenary (all attendees) and small group work. Sessions will be from 45-90min, with 3-4 sessions per day where there will be multiple options. Expert-led work will be balanced by extensive opportunities for networking and individual connections.

Cost: Early bird pricing, until July 15, is $300 per person. Price includes admission to all sessions, plus a plant-based lunch, beverages and snacks on site both days.

To purchase a ticket and reserve a place, visit CompassionateLeadershipSummit.com.

For general inquiries, please contact the leadership team at: hello@compassionsummit.com.

NOV 8 - 9, 2019
The Hub | University of Washington

“Compassion is a marvel of human nature, a precious inner resource, the foundation of our well-being and the harmony of our societies.”
— DALAI LAMA