

"The Cathedral Church of St. Paul in the Diocese of Massachusetts."

[This is the new official title of the Cathedral, adopted at a recent meeting of the Cathedral Chapter.]

THE INSTITUTION OF DR. ROUSMANIERE AS DEAN.

ber, being the Monday after the eighteenth Sunday after Trinity, nineteen hundred twelve, have taken the before mentioned house of worship under our special care as Bishop and presiding officer, as aforesaid, and that of our successors in office.

And in the presence of divers of the clergy and a public congregation therein assembled, we do pronounce and declare that this House of God is the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Massachusetts and is dedicated as a Cathedral for celebrating his Holy Sacraments, for offering to His Glorious Majesty the sacrifices of Prayer, Praise and Thanksgiving, for blessing his People In His Name, and for all other holy offices of his Church, according to the provisions of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Hand and Seal at Boston on the day and year above written, In the twentieth year of our consecration.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE,
Bishop of Massachusetts

Letter of Institution.

TO OUR WELL BELOVED IN CHRIST,
EDMUND SWETT ROUSMANIERE, PRES-
BYTER, GREETING:

We do by these presents give and grant unto you, in whose learning, diligence, sound doctrine and prudence, we do fully confide, our license and authority to perform the Office of Dean in the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Massachusetts; and also hereby do Institute you into said Office possessed of full Power to perform every Act of Sacerdotal Function among the People of the same; you continuing in communion with us, and complying with the rubrics and canons of the Church, and with such lawful directions as you shall at any time receive from us. And as an Instituted Dean of this Cathedral you are faithfully to administer the office now intrusted to you, as a Just Administrator, a Faithful Priest, a Devoted Pastor, an Earnest and Loyal Preacher and Teacher, as a Man filled with the Spirit of the Master.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto affixed our Episcopal Seal and Signature, at Boston, this seventh day of October, A. D., and in the twentieth year of our consecration. WILLIAM LAWRENCE,
Bishop of Massachusetts.

The Dean's Message: "This building, rich with memories of consecrated men and women, and dear to us who have worshipped together here as minister and people, enters to-day into the service of the diocese. We pray that it may become a center of spiritual life and inspiration to this city and state, and that all sorts and conditions of men may, through its ministrations, learn the power of the living Christ. I ask the help of all who love St. Paul's in fulfilling this mission."
