The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

One of the basic dimensions of the Mass is that it is a sacrifice. Many ancient religions (if not all) are very familiar with the term “sacrifice.” A sacrifice can take the form of a bloody or unbloody sacrifice. Some early practices of religion, most especially the Ancient Israelites, included either the offering of livestock (lamb, cattle, etc.) or their harvest to God. They would make sacrifices usually for three basic purposes: First is for reconciliation, because they are aware that they offended God through an act of sin and so seek repentance. Second is as an act of thanksgiving, because they know they have been blessed with either a good harvest, wealth, children, etc. and so seek to give back something to God through a sacrifice. Finally, as a petitionary action, because when the ancient people wanted to make a request from God, they would offer something to him. Now, as Christians, we no longer have to make a bloody sacrifice, because the definitive and ultimate sacrifice has already been made—Jesus Christ who is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Notice how throughout the Mass, all three dimensions of a sacrifice are being fulfilled: we first seek reconciliation at the beginning of Mass during the penitential rite. We also give thanks to God during the Eucharistic Prayer (eucharistia in Greek means thanksgiving). Also, we ask petitions from God for the needs of our brothers and sisters during the Prayers of the Faithful. So every Sunday we are invited to be a part of the re-presencing of the definitive and ultimate sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Remember to always come in Mass keeping in mind what you want to offer up as reconciliation, thanksgiving, and petitions.
