NOTE
The speakers for the sound system are located on the underside of the pew in front of you. To avoid blocking the sound it is necessary to leave the kneeler in the down position. Rather than lifting the kneeler, feel free to walk on top of it when entering or leaving the pew. Art Illustration by Martin Erspamer, OSB, Year A.

We plow the fields and scatter the good seed on the land,
but it is fed and watered by God’s almighty hand.
He sends the snow in winter, the warmth to swell the grain,
all good gifts around us are sent from heav’n above;
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord for all his love.

God only is the Maker of all things near and far;
he paints the way-side flower, he lights the evening star.
The winds and waves obey him, by him the birds are fed;
much more, to us, his children, he gives our daily bread.

We thank thee then, O Father, for all things bright and good:
the seed-time and the harvest, our life, our health, our food.
Accept the gifts we offer for all thy love imparts,
and, what thou most desirest, our humble, thankful hearts.

O God, al-might-y Fa-ther. Lord Je-sus Christ, On-ly

Be-got-ten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Fa-ther, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on us;

you take a-way the sins of the world, re-ceive our prayer;

you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa-ther, have mer-cy on us. For you a- lone are the Ho-ly One, with the Ho-ly Spir-it in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A-men.

I will give thanks to your name,
be-cause of your kind-ness and your truth.

I thank you, LORD, with all my heart;
you have heard the words of my mouth.

I give thanks to your name
for your merciful love and your faithfulness.

On the day I called, you answered me;
you increased the strength of my soul.

In the presence of the angels I praise you
I bow down toward your holy temple. R.

All earth’s kings shall thank you,
O LORD,
when they hear the words of your mouth.

They shall sing of the ways of the LORD,
“How great is the glory of the LORD!” R.
