FPL- SUMMER QUARTER

Voices of Tomorrow

Parent Advocacy

Parents are often the best educational advocates for their children! As a parent, learn how to connect with educators and administrators in both casual and formal settings, understand IEP’s, how to communicate with your child’s teacher, and if you have concerns or problems that a teacher can not or will not address, learn how to follow the chain of command through the school, and if necessary, to the district office.

Q & A

Q: What is the focus for this quarter?
A: Summer quarter will focus on parent advocacy and building positive parent-child relationships.
