Nebraska Celebrates 100th Anniversary of Ratifying The 19th Amendment and Women’s Voting Rights

WASHINGTON - August 2 marks the 100th anniversary of Nebraska ratifying the 19th Amendment, which gave American women the right to vote. The Women’s Suffrage Centennial Commission is the federal commission tasked with coordinating the nation’s commemorative efforts. Commissioners are available to discuss the important role Nebraska played in ratification of the 19th Amendment.

The Women’s Suffrage Centennial Commission website womensvote100.org includes national events and events throughout Nebraska to commemorate the centennial anniversary of women’s ballot box equality.

- On August 16, the Votes For Women: Nebraska’s Suffrage Story exhibit will open at the Nebraska History Museum.
- From August-September 2019: Pop-up versions of the National Archives exhibit Rightfully Hers: American Women and the Vote will be distributed to 62 venues across Nebraska—including schools, libraries, museums, and community sites—to be displayed for the centennial.

The commission includes 14 dynamic leaders spanning a diverse professional and ideological landscape.

Chairwoman Kay Coles James - President, The Heritage Foundation
Kay Coles James is President of The Heritage Foundation where she has served on the board of trustees for 13 years. Mrs. James' commitment to the principles of free enterprise and individual freedom are evidenced in her career of public service that spans three decades. She has served as director of the Office of Personnel Management, Virginia Secretary of Health and Human Services and Dean of the Robertson School of Government at Regent University.

Vice Chairwoman Former Senator Barbara Mikulski
Former Senator Barbara Mikulski’s political career spans over four decades. She proudly served the people of Maryland in the U.S. Congress for forty years, becoming the longest-serving woman in U.S. Congressional history in the process. Her first elected office was to the City Council of Baltimore in 1971. She then served in the U.S. House of Representatives for a decade prior to her election to the U.S. Senate in 1986, when she became the first Democratic woman elected to the U.S. Senate in her own right.
