

ANNA LAYMON

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Anna Laymon is the Executive Director of the Women's Suffrage Centennial Commission (WSCC). Created by Congress to coordinate the nationwide celebration of the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th Amendment, the Commission works to ensure that the story of women's fight for the ballot is shared and commemorated. Prior to joining the WSCC, Anna worked as the Director of Partnerships and Public Programs for the National Woman's Party, the historic nonprofit founded in 1913 to ensure the passage of a suffrage amendment to the U.S. Constitution. While there, she built a coalition of women's historians and women-centered nonprofits to lift-up women's history and explore issues of women's equality today. Anna has an MA in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies from the University of Cincinnati and has spent her career in dynamic, women-centered organizations across the U.S. She brings her many years of experience to her role at the Commission and is honored to be coordinating the nationwide efforts to celebrate this milestone of American democracy.
