Office of the President shall be filled by the President-Elect.

Section 4. Meetings
Regular meetings of the Board shall be held annually. Additional meetings shall be called by the President. Business may be conducted when a quorum (2/3 of voting members) is present. When a quorum cannot gather for a meeting, business may be conducted by electronic communication medium. A motion shall have passed when a majority of the members present at a meeting or responding to the ballot vote affirmatively.

Electronic Meetings:
Regular or special meetings of the board may be held by electronic means (such as e-mail or other internet communication systems, telephone conferences, video conferences, etc.) subject to the following:

a. A quorum of the board as noted in Article VI, Section 4 shall have access to the appropriate electronic meeting media, as verified by their response for a call for any particular meeting. Once established, all shall be assumed present until the meeting is adjourned.
b. The technology used for the electronic meeting shall allow the members full access to and full participation in all meeting transactions either continuously or intermittently through the specified time of the meeting.
c. The affirmative vote of a majority of the quorum shall be the minimum vote requirement for the adoption of any motion. However, votes by email regarding financial affairs require unanimous approval.
d. Procedural rules related to the conduct of electronic meetings shall be established and promulgated by the Board of Directors.
Section 5. Removal from Office
All Board members may be removed from office by unanimous vote of the Board, excluding the member under charge.

Article VII. ELECTIONS

Election of members of the Board of Directors of the Association shall be conducted by electronic ballot following the annual business meeting. The Nominating Committee shall present a minimum of one nominee for each elected position. Additional nominations may be made from the floor.

Eligibility to Vote: Members, Life Members, CFY Members, and SLPA/Paraprofessional Members are eligible to vote for all elected positions. Associate Members and Student Members are not eligible to vote in the ballot election of officers and Bylaw changes of the Association.

Article VIII. COMMITTEES

All members of the Association can be appointed to a committee. Standing Committees and their specific charges and recommended activities are specified in the WSLHA Policies and Procedures Manual.

Section 1. Ad-Hoc Committees
Ad-Hoc Committees will be appointed by those officers of the Association so designated by Article VI, Section 2 of the Bylaws. The charge to appoint an Ad-Hoc Committee will come from the Board. The Board will draw up the specific goals and responsibilities of the Committee. Ad-Hoc Committees will be considered dissolved at the termination of the responsible officer's term of office unless reconstituted by the succeeding person filling that office.

Section 2. Membership on Standing Committees
Each Board Member will be responsible for presenting to the President for approval the chairpersons of those Standing Committees which are responsible to the Board member during his/her term and assisting the Committee Chair in appointing committee members. Membership on the committees shall be terminated as specified in the WSLHA Policies and Procedures Manual.

Article IX. POWERS OF THE MEMBERSHIP

Although the Board is the duly constituted body charged with the making of policy and conducting of business, the membership shall reserve the power to direct or limit Board action through processes of initiative and referendum.

Section I. Initiative
Any voting member may initiate the consideration of any item of business by the membership by presenting a motion from the floor at any business meeting of that body or by presenting a resolution in writing to the President at least two weeks in advance of the annual business meeting. The consideration of such a resolution will be subject to accepted rules of parliamentary procedures. Any voting member of the Association may initiate the consideration of any item of business by the Board by presenting a resolution in writing to the President at least two weeks prior to a Board meeting. Any such resolution must appear on the agenda of the next meeting of the Board.

Section 2. Referendum
Voting members may request the reconsideration of any action taken by the Board or the membership through the presentation in writing to the President of the resolution to reconsider, provide that the resolution is signed by ten or more voting members of the Association. Any referendum must appear on the agenda of the next business meeting of the membership.

Article X. THE HONORS OF THE ASSOCIATION
The Honors of the Association may be presented to an individual on the approval of the Honors and Awards Committee. This award recognizes distinguished contribution to the field of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology and is the highest honor the Association can give.

Article XI. DISCRIMINATION
The Association shall not discriminate on the basis of color, race, ethnicity, sex, gender, identity/gender expression, sexual orientation, age, religion, national origin, disability, culture, language, dialect, or socioeconomic status. All programs and activities of the Association shall be conducted in furtherance of this policy.

Article XII: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY
The rules contained in the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised (RONR) shall govern the Washington Speech-Language Hearing Association in all cases to which they are applicable and to the extent they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or with any polices or rules of orders that WSLHA may adopt.

Article XIII. AMENDMENTS
These Bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of those voting members responding by electronic ballot within twenty-one days of the date of the transmission. Proposals for amendments shall be submitted to the Committee on Bylaws for formulation and must be approved by the Board before the ballot is submitted to the membership.
