CMGA Vice President

This position is typically successor to the President. This position:

- Is a member of the Board
- Performs Chair responsibilities when the President cannot be available
- Reports to, and works closely with, the President
- Participates closely with the President to develop and implement officer transition plans
- Performs other responsibilities as assigned by the Board or the President.