In 2016, the Hillcrest Business Association celebrated its ninety-fifth year of existence. Over the last ninety-five years the HBA has seen the neighborhood thrive and diminish, struggle and be reborn again. I am happy to report that in 2016 we have planted the seeds so that when the HBA’s centenary occurs in five short years, Hillcrest’s strong business growth will be assured.

In 2016, the HBA continued to implement its palate of promotional programs including events such as CityFest, Taste of Hillcrest and the newly revived Nightmare on Normal Street. We also produced promotional efforts such as Your Guide to Fabulous video and co-operative advertising efforts. HBA secured a new pressure washing contractor, cleaned almost seven hundred miles of sidewalk and doubled the budget for our security program.

More important than our day-to-day accomplishments were our leadership efforts. In 2016 we secured a commitment from SANDAG that reduced parking losses, related to their bicycle lane project, from over 190 lost spaces to a mere 23 lost spaces. We organized a team of designers and land use experts to develop a plan for a new park on Normal Street that will address Hillcrest’s open space deficit. Most important of all, HBA worked to ensure that the Uptown Plan, is being developed for Hillcrest, which encourages growth in a way that supports businesses. The HBA’s goals of 100’ height, reasonable density and no restrictive historic district, have been incorporated into the proposed plan that has been adopted by the San Diego City Council.

These important long term accomplishments have set us on the path to ensuring that when we do celebrate our centenary as one of San Diego’s oldest business associations, the neighborhood will be thriving and an example to other neighborhoods.

This four day event sought to simulate what a park on Normal Street might look like by closing the street for four days and implementing a range of activities. Efforts included: outdoor yoga and boot camp, a lecture series in conjunction with San Diego Architectural Foundation, an outdoor movie, dog park, and an outdoor concert. Re-Imagine Normal Street was the recipient of a SANDAG Go by Bike mini grant.

Hillcrest Open Houses and Member Communications

The majority of the HBA’s budget is set aside for neighborhood beautification projects. Projects implemented include:

The HBA worked with local property owners and our partners at the California Restaurant Association, to ensure that SANDAG committed to an almost one for one parking space replacement policy.

District 3 Candidates Debate
The HBA partnered with other urban neighborhoods and hosted a candidates debate for City Council District 3. The event brought together East Village, Gaslamp Quarter, Mission Hills and Hillcrest. The debate was attended by a variety of media outlets, was hosted by Gene Cubbison of NBC news and was attended by over 100 neighbors.

Uptown Plan Representation
The Hillcrest Business Association successfully advocated for many of the growth and density allowances that are being provided for in the current draft of the Uptown Community Plan.
