A Covenant of Peace
Church of the Covenant
Palmer, AK

We believe that our response to the living Christ binds us to the guiding principles of reconciliation and love. Peacemaking is our vocation. Our allegiance to this peaceable realm is first and foremost in our lives above any allegiance to family or country.

Therefore, we covenant with other persons of like hearts, minds, and souls to:

1. Speak and act compassionately for justice even when doing so may threaten our safety or economic interests.
2. Reject violence as our response to conflict.
3. Embrace persons of every nationality and religious identity as members of our family- the human family.
4. See the holy in every person.

This statement of commitment to peace is the whole hearted mind of the Church of the Covenant, Palmer, Alaska.

February 8, 2003