Tunisia Impact Trip

Cancellation and Refund Policy

If a Tunisia Impact Trip attendee becomes unable to attend the Tunisia Impact trip, the attendee must inform Search for Common Ground via email at bfreericks@sfcg.org in order to cancel the attendee’s registration.

Due to the logistics and timing involved in organizing the Tunisia Impact Trip, tickets/registrations and registration fees for these experiences are strictly non-refundable and non-transferable (to another individual or another date). Any credits or discounts applied to ticket purchases are strictly non-refundable and may not be reused on a future purchase. There will be no credit or transfer granted for any portion of the ticket price.

No Exceptions

Please take careful note of the terms outlined in this policy as no exceptions to the policy will be made, regardless of the reason for cancellation. For the avoidance of doubt, Search for Common Ground cannot make any exceptions to this cancellation and refund policy even if the cancellation is due to illness or medical issues; family or personal matters; revocation, cancellation, or expiration of the attendee’s visa; travel bans; deportation; any laws, regulations, orders, or policies concerning immigration and refugee status that may impact the attendee’s ability to travel; change in the attendee’s immigration status; scheduling conflicts; travel delays; a force majeure event (including, but not limited to, an act of God, war, terrorist activity, labor dispute, civil unrest, utility outage, etc.); or any other reason whatsoever.

Travel Insurance

For additional protection, we encourage attendees to purchase travel medical and/or trip cancellation insurance. The attendee’s credit card or employer may also provide certain coverage.
