Sam and Molly are lovers, and when Sam dies he becomes caught between our world and what lies next. Molly is in danger and Sam cannot bear to leave her. A medium, Oda Mae Brown, helps Sam get in touch with Molly to warn her. You know what happens next, but you must experience it live, in the theater. (Fire emoji, anyone?)

NOISES OFF
March 24 – April 16, 2023
Written by Michael Frayn
Directed by Scott Spence
Presented through special arrangement with Concord Theatricals
Additional Performances Thursday night performances
Conceived when English playwright Michael Frayn was watching a performance from the wings, he said, “It was funnier from behind than in front, and I thought that one day I must write a farce from behind.” And write a fabulous farce he did! This play within a play was meta before meta was meta. Come watch a tennis match of hilarious comedy.

STUDIO THEATER

ONCE ON THIS ISLAND

In this Tony Award-nominated musical, together we will swim away to the sands of the French Antilles in the glistening Caribbean Sea. A wise peasant girl on this tropical island uses the power of love and the beauty of acceptance to bring together very different people.

“Just what the weary world needs now!” — Variety.

BUYER & CELLAR
September 9 – October 9, 2022
Written by Jonathan Tolins
Directed by Jamie Koehl
Produced by special arrangement with Dramatists
Barbra Streisand at Harper’s Bazaar,”Instead of just storing my things in the basement, I can make a street of shops and display them,” Taking that fact, and the fictional character of Alex (of course he’s a struggling actor!) who becomes the only employee of these “shopped—plus a frozen yogurt machine—we join him in his day job as he awaits the “Funny Girl” herself to check out. That’s when we find out the true price of fame. Regional Premiere

“Frothy and hilarious, satisfyingly seasoned with treachery, bitchery, idolatry, and punctured celebrity hero-worship!” — The New Yorker

DOUBT: A PARABLE
May 26 – June 25, 2023
Written by John Patrick Shanley
Directed by Don Carrier
This 2015 Pulitzer Prize-winner for Drama draws one into an issue of suspicion in the query of a Catholic school in the Bronx in the 1960s. Principal Sister Aloysius’s suspicions about the relationship between a priest, Father Flynn, and a young male student will raise questions long after you leave the theater.

“The grey gulf between Sister Aloysius and Father Flynn’s entrenched positions is where the audience are left to swim. The play leaves us, unnervingly, in that place of doubt.” — The Guardian
